IN REVOLT PLOT,
FREED BY JURY

Former Provisional President of Mexico Acquitted of Charge To Arm Yaqui Indians.

JURORS LOCKED
NEARLY 3 HOURS

Verdict Returned in Los Angeles Court Also Exonerated Chief's Associates.

Los Angeles, February 13.—(AP)—Adolfo De La Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, and four others charged with attempting to violate the neutrality laws of the United States, were acquitted by a jury in federal court today.

A verdict of not guilty was returned 2 hours and 47 minutes after the jury received the case. The former president and his associates had been accused of a conspiracy to foment a revolution among Yaqui Indians in Sonora, Mex. De La Huerta received the verdict with no display of emotion. Those acquitted with him were his secretary, Louis Vayou; Alfonso G. Moretti, Francisco Ferriz and Enrique Bercedo.

Attorneys Chastised Frequently.

Frequent clashes between defense and prosecution attorneys marked the closing hours of the trial. At one juncture Frank P. Dougherty, attorney for the defense, challenged the accuracy of references made by United States Attorney Gallagher.

"It is ridiculous and absurd that a man of the caliber of De La Huerta would attempt to violate the laws of this country or start a revolution with 20 rifles and 2,300 rounds of ammunition," Attorney Dougherty

Traces Found
Of Age - Old
Georgia Race

Testimony to Ancient Indian Culture Uncovered at Mound Villages.

North Georgia, land of a one-time high Indian culture and wealth that lured such leaders as Hernando De Soto to linger there, has begun to yield its story of the lives of those who centuries ago reigned supreme.

It is a story carved on shells and pottery and bits of copper—in bones bleached by the mould of an unmeasured time they have lain in the burial grounds near the mound villages around Rome and Cartersville.

Miss Margaret E. Ashley, daughter of Mayor Pro Tem. Claude L. Ashley, who is the chief lieutenant of Dr. Warren K. Moorehead, head of the department of archaeology of Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., Monday returned to Atlanta after several days of search among the mounds near Rome.

Dr. Moorehead, who for nearly four years has devoted his archaeological researches to the mounds of north Georgia, has unearthed several bits of valuable pottery, as well as eighteen skeletons of a race known to scientists as "the Etowah group."

Other Relics Discovered.

The head of the archaeological department of Phillips academy, Miss Ashley reports, likewise discovered bits of beads, a monolithic ceremonial ax and other relics of a bygone age that she regards as extremely valuable in his quest for a connection between the north Georgia pre-Columbian tribes and the well-known Mayan group of the southwest.

While Dr. Moorehead has been continuing his search for a connection between the north Georgia pre-Columbian tribes and the well-known Mayan group of the southwest.

In Thoms Murder

Prosecutor Rejects Hickman's Offer To Plead Guilty in Return for Life Sentence.

LONG AND TEDIOUS
TRIAL IN PROSPECT

Sentence Will Probably Be Pronounced Today for Kidnaping and Slaying of Marian Parker.

Los Angeles, February 13.—(AP)—An offer made by William Edward Hickman through his attorneys to plead guilty to the murder of C. Ivy Thoms, a druggist, who was shot and killed during an attempted holdup, was rejected tonight by District Attorney Asa Keyes.

The youth offered to plead guilty in return for a sentence of life imprisonment instead of the death penalty on the Thoms murder indictment, which jointly accuses Hickman and his 16-year-old accomplice, Welby Hunt. As a result of the prosecution's rejection of the offer, a long and tedious review of the insanity defense of Hickman, already heard in connection with the kidnaping and slaying of Marian Parker, for which Hickman probably will be sentenced tomorrow, was the prospect in the Thoms case, which will open Wednesday.

Demand "Full Penalty."

The prosecution said it took the stand that Hickman was a sane and master criminal and that as such he should receive the full penalty of the law.

A. Gray Gilmer, attorney for Hunt, said tonight he desired to plead his client guilty, providing he can be assured that he can place before the court, and for future records, evidence of mitigating circumstances in the boy's favor.

Both Hickman and Hunt have confessed taking part in the holdup on Christmas Eve, 1925, which resulted in the death of Thoms.

HICKMAN INTENDS TO TESTIFY.

Los Angeles, February 13.—(AP)—Possibility that Welby Hunt may enter a plea of guilty on Wednesday when he and William Edward Hickman go to trial for the joint holdup-murder of C. Ivy Thoms a year ago, was indicated today by attorneys.

District Attorney Asa Keyes declared that Hickman, who last week was declared sane by a superior court jury in connection with the slaying of Marian Parker, might be convicted and hanged for the Thoms murder before his appeal from the Parker case verdict was returned. Keyes pointed out that Hickman had entered two pleas in the Thoms case, those of "not guilty" and "not guilty by reason of insanity." The jury thus will decide, Keyes said, both his sanity and his guilt if he is found sane.

Today Hickman declared he would testify for the state against his alleged accomplice, the 16-year-old Hunt boy, in the Thoms murder.

"He said a jury was testifying against me; watch him when I take the stand against him," Hickman said.

U. S. PRISONERS
MAKE 2ND ESCAPE
WITHIN FOUR DAYS

Mobile, Ala., February 13.—(AP)—Frank Stamp, of Savannah, Ga., and Lonnie Taylor, of Mobile, federal prisoners, the former with a three-year term in Atlanta hanging over him, who were recaptured in Selma yesterday after breaking jail here Thursday morning, made a second escape tonight.

The prisoners en route to Mobile in charge of Sheriff Pat Byrne and a deputy sheriff leaped from an automobile tonight two blocks from the county jail, and are still at large. Both prisoners were handcuffed.

FIGHT FLARES
IN SENATE OVER
UTILITY PROBE

Massachusetts Solon Asails Power Lobby in Pressing Demand for Inquiry.

LOBBYISTS PEER FROM GALLERIES

Watch Every Move Made on Floor To Authorize Resolution for Sweeping Investigation.

Washington, February 13.—(United News.)—The senate fight to investigate public utilities throughout the country opened today with two unexpected developments.

First, Senator Walsh, of Massachusetts, who is urging the inquiry, struck at the power lobby which is here trying to prevent the senate from investigating. He proposed an amendment to the senate rules to require all lobbyists to register with the secretary of the senate and the legislation they are interested in.

Walsh does not question the right of interests to hire lobbyists. All he seeks is to bring them out into the open so their connections will be public. He charges that the most powerful lobby in many years is at work here to prevent the senate from investigating the power industry. He will attempt to have his proposal to register lobbyists considered tomorrow.

Dawes Declines to Act.

Second, Vice President Dawes, who would be directed to appoint an investigating committee of five senators should the Walsh resolution be adopted, announced that should this resolution be approved he would decline to appoint the committee because he is interested in certain public utilities which would be investigated.

These two developments give some hint of the intensity of the fight over the public utility industry. The senate was in a serious mood as debate on the proposal began today. Senators were not indulging in their usual pleasantries. Faces were worried look for the public utility industry is mobilized full strength to block this investigation.

In the galleries lobbyists were peering watchfully at the senators. Every senator knows that if he does not vote "right" on this investigation he will not expect support from the wealthy officers of public utility companies. He knows that efforts may be made

ASQUITH BELIEVED
DYING IN ENGLAND

Doctors Abandon Hope for Former Premier; Family Called to Bedside.

Sutton Courtenay, England, February 14. (Tuesday).—(AP)—All hope for the recovery of the Earl of Oxford and Asquith was abandoned by his physician early this morning.

The earl, who as Herbert H. Asquith, prime minister, was one of the great figures of the world war, became unconscious early yesterday afternoon and it was said that the end was only a question of how long the enfeebled heart could hold out.

Wife Remains at Bedside.

Lady Oxford (Margot Asquith) kept a ceaseless vigil at her husband's bedside for more than 50 hours. Her daughter, Princess Bessie, and another Asquith kept her company.

Belying the hackneyed saying "no man is a hero to his valet," one of those most deeply affected in the household was the butler, in the service of the earl for many years.

"He was the best master that ever stepped on earth," he said sorrowfully, "I cannot bear to see him lying there so helpless. It is a great tragedy, but thank God, he is not suffering. He looked very peaceful and beautiful when I was in the room just now."

The health of Lord Oxford had declined steadily since he retired from politics in 1926. On Sunday, however, it took a sudden turn for the worse when pulmonary complications developed.

Relatives Are Summoned.

When the earl suddenly was taken ill yesterday he appeared to feel that his end was approaching and expressed the wish that all his family should come to him as soon as possible.

Sir Maurice and Lady Bonham-Carter today joined the other relatives at the bedside. Sir Maurice served his father-in-law as secretary for six years until 1916.

During his recent enforced confinement to his home the earl had spent much time in reading and painting. He took great delight in the outlook from the room over the Thames, which flows through the grounds behind the house.

LINDBERGH BRAVES STORM AND ARRIVES HOME SAFELY,
COMPLETING RECORD TOUR

Is King of Hearts Today

PASTORS DIFFER
ON HIGH SCHOOL
RECESS DANCING

Proposal Is Favored by Dr. Moore, Rabbi Marx and Others and Opposed by Other Ministers.

The proposal to revoke the rule of the Atlanta board of education forbidding dancing at the school by students of the Girls' High school, which created a stir in Atlanta Monday, "probably will not be considered" at the session of the board slated for 3 o'clock this afternoon, according to George Powell, president.

If the matter is offered to the board at its meeting this afternoon, it will be referred to the rules committee, of which Mrs. Julia O'Keefe Nelson is chairman, for a public hearing.

Ministers Differ On Dancing.

Officials of the Parent-Teacher association of the Girls' High school have addressed a communication to members of the school board asking that the prohibition be removed and that the students be permitted to dance during recess periods. They hold that the exercise would be beneficial and would develop grace and poise. They are supported in their contention by a number of ministers who hold the same views and who deny that inauguration of the exercise would react to the "moral deterioration" of the participants.

On the other hand many clergymen are opposed to the proposal.

Wilbur Hits
Critics of Big
Navy Program

Compares Naval Costs With Amount Women Spend for Cosmetics in Indiana Speech.

Indianapolis, Ind., February 13.—(AP)—Assailing the critics of the administration's navy building program, Secretary Wilbur declared here tonight that they were unwittily sponsoring a movement to make the navy fight blindfolded.

He ridiculed those who attacked the cost of the program, asserting that the nine-year building program of $740,000,000 is ten million dollars less than the candy bill of the United States in 1925. He also said that in 1925 women spent $1,825,000,000 on cosmetics and said that if the attacks upon the navy were based solely upon economic grounds, it may be defeated when suggested that there are times when gunpowder is more valuable than face powder.

Says Navy Needs Ships.

"Speaking broadly," the secretary told the Indianapolis association of credit men, "it may be said that the ships planned in this building program constitute the eyes of the fleet."

"Those who are ignorantly attacking this program with a view of restraining the belligerence of this nation do not perhaps realize that they are trying to put us in a position where, in a severe war, our sailors would have to fight blindfolded."

The navy building program now receiving consideration by the house committee on naval affairs, represents an orderly step in the development of a treaty navy, the secretary said.

The secretary said that immediately after the Geneva disarmament conference "we were called upon to determine and to declare a naval policy. This declaration was made at the Black Hills, South Dakota, shortly after the Geneva conference."

Shipbuilding Slackened.

"We declared that we would proceed to build up the fleet in accordance with our needs and in accordance with plans which we evolved before the Geneva conference and the failure of the conference to agree upon a limit to disarmament from that program."

"The fundamental reason that the present program is large is that we have not been making ships of the type and of the quantity needed during the period in which we hope for a supplemental treaty limiting armament of this type of ship. We did not again desire to scrap new ships. We proposed to wait until the limit was fixed and then build up to that limit instead of repeating what we did in the Washington agreement—agree upon a limit and scrap down to that limit."

"One of the reasons for proposing this program at this time is because we want to get behind us the building of these necessary auxiliaries before we are confronted with the problem of replacement of battleships."

Saint Valentine of 1928
Is King of Hearts Today

DAN CUPID TO HAVE ANNUAL FLING

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

Today is a day of the finer and softer emotions, a day for the hearts to go pitter-patter, a day for dalliance in the soul-satisfying sentiments of love, sweet love. It's the day of Eros, the day of Venus and his patron saint is the immortal good Saint Valentine.

Saint Valentine lived centuries ago, so they say, but his day will live forever. Here in Atlanta, Ga., out in Keokuk, over in Timbuctoo, along the white lights of Broadway in the Medicine Hat in Omsk, Tomsk, Ehrenbreitenstein, in Paternitzburg and in Opp, Ala., it is the day when the sheik comes into his own and the day when the sweet Shebas capitulate in gushy and tearful ecstasy.

Demand will be heavy today for mustache dye, brilliantine, bay rum, love powders, cut flowers, telegraph blanks, theater tickets, taxicabs, bootleggers, white vests, steam yachts, all-day suckers, popcorn balls, fur coats, diamond and platinum knick knacks, ginger cakes, turnip greens, quail on toast and other accessories designed to invoke Dan Cupid's blessing.

Mail boxes will be clogged with red, yellow, green, blue, purple and heliotrope cards bearing glittering inscriptions garnished with red hearts and white fluffy lace. These cards will carry tender messages writ in twenty-seven languages including the Scandinavian, all meaning the same thing and asking the eternal question, "Will You Be My Valentine?"

In this age of speed and materialism, of jazz and jackassery, of evangelists and charlatans, it is refreshing to know that the sheik and sheba of today have the same improved advantages over lovers of former ages as they have in other lines.

Years and years ago the lusty young swain performed must don half a ton of iron armor, grasp a fifty-pound sword and step forth and kill a pascal of dragons or so before his lady love would even turn her eyes on him long enough to give him the once over and figure out whether or not he was the

NEW OPERA SERIES
HAS NO WEAK SPOT

Argentina Alone in Havana Fight

Candler Returns With Report That Schedule Selected Will Be Highly Pleasing to Patrons.

Atlanta's season of grand opera to be offered April 23 to 28, inclusive, is "a program without a weak spot" in the opinion of Charles Howard Candler, vice president and treasurer of the Atlanta Music Festival association, who returned to Atlanta Monday after holding a conference with Metropolitan Opera company officials last week to arrange final plans for the Atlanta season.

Mr. Candler certainly ought to know what he is talking about since he has personally heard most of the outstanding hits of the present opera season in New York. He said Atlanta was given about twenty operas from which to select the nine that are to be offered here and he said Gatti-Casazza, head of the Metropolitan company, offered to make any substitute the Atlanta officials requested but stated that the series of operas was so pleasing that no substitution was sought.

Miss Moore's Debut.

Another unusual feature of the Atlanta season this year will be the appearance of Miss Grace Moore, Jellison, Tenn., girl, who made her debut last week with the Metropolitan company.

"This will be quite an event when Miss Moore sings in Atlanta," Mr. Candler said. "It will be the first time a new star has sung here so soon after a successful New York debut. It also will mean that a large delegation of Tennessee citizens will come to Atlanta after the New York success and many of his Tennessee friends came to hear him sing. He will be back with the Metropolitan stars in April."

Mr. Candler said the nine operas to be offered in Atlanta all contain melody to a more or less degree and that for this reason they will have a general appeal not found in some of the heavier productions.

While in New York Mr. Candler enjoyed the debut of Miss Moore at the Metropolitan.

JUMPS FROM CUBA
TO ST. LOUIS PORT
IN FINAL FLIGHT

Has Visited 15 Countries and Covered 9,000 Miles Since Leaving Washington December 13.

IN AIR MONDAY
FOR 15 1/2 HOURS

Good-Will Ambassador To Be Guest of City in Aerial Exhibition on River Front Today.

St. Louis, February 13.—(AP)—Flying through fog and rain, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh completed a 1,200-mile non-stop flight from Havana, Cuba, by landing safely at Lambert-St. Louis field at 5:01 p. m. today. He was in the air 15 hours and 35 minutes.

Since his departure from Washington December 13 for Mexico City, Colonel Lindbergh has covered about 9,000 miles on a circuitous route and has visited 15 nations and dependencies in Central and South America and the West Indies. Approximately 700 persons, including members of the thirty-first division air corps, of which Lindbergh is a member, viewed the landing of the good will ambassador, who is to be the guest of all St. Louis in an aerial exhibition on the Mississippi river front tomorrow afternoon.

Plane Circles Over Field.

The plane's approach to the field was from the west at 4:30 p. m. Passing to the northwest the Spirit of St. Louis began circling the field at an altitude of approximately 100 feet. Lindbergh evidently was scanning the field to make sure no crowd was in the way.

He made four complete circuits. In descending he "gave the gun" to his plane to avoid getting mired in the mud. When Lindbergh got out of the plane there was backslapping and a chorus of cheering as President Harold M. Bixby, of the chamber of commerce, Acting Mayor Walter Neim and other greeted him.

As mechanics showed the Spirit of St. Louis into the hangar Lindbergh posed with the official photographers for photographs and movies in the light of flares which were burned to help out the dim and disappearing daylight.

Followed Direct Course.

Lindbergh said he flew from Key West about the west coast of Florida to Cedar Keys and then took a course across the Gulf of Mexico to St. Louis, which he followed, flying low. Visibility, he said, was "very low."

"I stuck to my course steadily," he related, "and sighted the Mississippi river about 30 miles below St. Louis, following it north to the Missouri river and then circled St. Charles, Mo., and

Audiences Gasp at Professional-Like Performance

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

In all modesty and with due deference to the proprietors it must be admitted that The Constitution-Loew's Grand 'Frolics' offered at that theater this week is one of the fastest and most enjoyable amateur shows ever staged in Atlanta. That, at least, was the verdict of the three audiences that witnessed the first performances Monday and if there has ever before been presented here a collection of prettier little girls than are seen in Victor Hyde's production this reviewer woteth not when it was.

Speedy dance numbers, half a dozen exceptionally pretty songs and a dozen specialties which demonstrated that Atlanta has a wealth of talent in a theatrical way, offered in a beautiful scenic environment and with costumes worthy of the most lavish Broadway production, "The Frolics" could have been staged as a real professional show without the audience being any the w

SNOW BLANKETS WEST CAROLINA TO FOUR INCHES

Asheville, N. C., February 13.—(AP) Whipped over the crest of the Appalachians before a southwest wind snow was steadily falling in Asheville this afternoon with a heavier fall reported from the surrounding mountains.

Horace Simmons, federal forest warden, telephoned to Asheville from the government observation tower on the tip of Mount Mitchell reporting a four-inch fall there at 1:30 o'clock with snow falling thick and fast and with weather conditions indicating its continuance for many hours.

The mercury in Asheville had dropped from 35 at 7 o'clock to 32 at 2 o'clock.

MOUNTED MARINES TO CHASE BANDITS

Managua, February 13.—(AP)—The United States marines, whose adaptability is proverbial, are being turned into improvised cavalry to match the tactics of the rebel leader, Augustino Sandino.

Virtually all of Sandino's men have been well mounted, which enabled them to slip away quickly when contact with the marine patrols seeking them threatened. The marines now are being provided with mounts as rapidly as possible to facilitate their movements through the regions where Sandino has been reported most active.

LEJEUNE LAUDS MORALE OF REBEL HUNTERS

Washington, February 13.—(AP)—Returning today from a personal inspection of conditions in Nicaragua, Major General Lejeune, commandant of the marine corps, praised the morale of the troops and the daily feats of the aviators in that country.

The Nicaraguan natives realize, he said, that the marines are in that country "for their own good," adding that many of them told him they were glad the Americans were there.

Questioned as to how long it would require to drive out Sandino and his followers, the general declared he had no idea, adding that it was also impossible to learn how many followers Sandino has.

MANY SUSPECTS JAILED AS FLEEING KIDNAPERS

Lafayette, Ind., February 13.—(AP)—Youths suspected of being John Burns and Samuel Baxter, prisoners who disappeared two days later, a communication today from marine headquarters at Managua, Nicaragua, to the navy department said, Myers was buried in a cemetery at San Rafael, Nicaragua.

Myers' home was in Pueblo, Colo., where his mother, Mrs. Ollie Myers, lives.

A mysterious telephone call from Danville, Ill., police said today, advised them to search empty freight cars on the Monon railroad near Maple Point, two and one-half miles east of Lafayette, in quest of the bodies of the missing deputies. The railroad is about three miles west of Maple Point and police here were skeptical of the information as two previous anonymous messages had led only to disappointment.

Deputies left here this afternoon for Danville to assist in questioning Mr. and Mrs. Otto W. Smith, relatives of Burns, with whom the fugitives stopped Tuesday.

AMERICAN BUSINESS CLUB TO MEET TODAY

The American Business club at 1 o'clock today will give a special Valentine program in the ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel. The program has been arranged by E. Burns Brooks and W. H. Wynne. An attendance prize will be awarded to the tenth man to shake the hand of the unknown donor of the prize.

Pups Replace Pugs in Show Arena of Rickard's Garden

New York, February 13.—(United News)—Roughnecks gave way to tough dogs in Madison Square Garden today as the venerable Westminster Kennel club opened its fifty-second annual dog show and 2,410 of the blood-hounded pooches of America yapped at 6,000 enthusiastic admirers attired almost exclusively in tweeds.

A handful of the latter mustered polite enthusiasm around the judging rings, which occupy the spot where Jack Dempsey is habitually introduced and Mike McTigue is habitually defeated. The remainder were busy on the great exhibit floor below, violating the "no petting or handling" rules and scratching where the tweeds worked through.

The rough coats undoubtedly have it in dogdom, for the gentlemanly looking wire-haired terriers seem to be hogging the show. There are 161 representatives of this class, far topped by Nedvoh Tallyman, of Barney, a 2-year-old champion in the open competition.

Despite the scandal that has broken out in police dog circles, the big fellows remain big favorites. The scandal is that the police dog and groomer Harry Lauder does, but they bear such names as Rosel von Hohenheim and Viktor von Dornbush. Lap dog accessories are on sale at the show in quantities. It is possible to purchase an Italian blue dog almost with military collar and brass buttons for $4.90. More expensive are the walking coats for Park avenue strolls, especially a model trimmed in sealskin, embellished with pettie's initials in rhinestones and with a lace handkerchief already tucked in its pocket.

There are also late models in dog china plates and dog hash-chests, the latter equipped with special no-flea-hiding-place cushions.

The tweed-wearing visitors turn from these offerings with ill-concealed horror, but the number of such dogs in New York is evidenced by a report that one hotel has yielded to the demand of its patrons and now serves a regular dog dinner for 30 cents. The dog is supposed to tip the waiter a dime.

CHICAGO WOMEN ACT TO SAVE GIRL

Chicago, February 13.—(United News)—Chicago club women are examining the brief but kaleidoscopic history of Doris Palmer McDonald, and will make every effort to save the girl from being handed over for murder in Montreal on March 23, it was announced today.

Doris and her husband, George McDonald, are sentenced to die for the murder of a taxi cab driver. The Women's Protective association, sponsored by prominent Chicago women, has employed James C. O'Brien, one of the city's leading criminal lawyers, and depositions will be taken Tuesday from three persons with the intent of building up an insanity defense.

The depositions will be forwarded to the minister of justice at Ottawa, Canada, with the request that the girl's case be reopened. If the plea fails, other legal maneuvers will be resorted to to prevent carrying out the sentence.

Doris McDonald, who was born Doris Snyder, is the adopted daughter of Dr. Frances Palmer, woman physician, of Oklahoma City, Okla. She and her sister, Edith, were placed in an orphanage when their parents separated while both girls were small children.

Doris was educated in an exclusive school in Oklahoma City. She became a kindergarten teacher. Then she met Buster Allen, son of a wealthy family, and married him "on a dare." That was three years ago when Doris was just 17.

Allen's family refused to accept the "orphan" girl, it is reported, and she left their home in New York to return to her foster mother in Oklahoma City. Her baby was born there.

Doris left Oklahoma again and went to New York, obtaining a job as a cloak model. Her marriage to Allen was annulled and she married McDonald.

Since the couple encountered difficulties in Canada she has stood by her husband, refusing to ask clemency for herself alone. Both deny the killing with which they are charged.

PAID FOR MANUFACTURING, FREIGHT AND SELLING COSTS

Swift & Company's Cattle Dollar

A thousand pound beef steer will yield on an average of 550 pounds of beef and 150 pounds of hide and other finished by-products.

Swift & Company, at its various packing plants, buys thousands of cattle each week, transforms them into beef and by-products, sells the beef to retail dealers and the by-products to various kinds of manufacturers to be worked up into forms which the consumer desires.

From every dollar which Swift & Company received in 1927 from sales of beef and by-products an average of 85 cents was paid to the producer of live stock for his animal; 14 cents was required to pay manufacturing, freight and selling costs, and one cent remained as earnings. Out of his 85 cents the farmer has to pay the cost of the animal and the expense of feeding and marketing before he makes any profit.

The story of beef is an interesting one. Something of this, as well as many other details of the packing industry, are told in the new Swift & Company Year Book for 1928.

2 ASYLUM GUARDS CLUBBED TO DEATH

Bridgewater, Mass., February 13.—(AP)—Two attaches of the Bridgewater state insane hospital were clubbed and strangled to death, and three others were injured when six criminally insane inmates attempted a desperate break for liberty today.

The attempted escape was thwarted only after a fierce struggle between the maniacs and all available guards and attendants who were summoned by an alarm. The men slain were Eugene E. Amlaw, a night supervisor, and Wilfred Gerrier, a night watchman. Both men had been indicted to death, apparently with a club, and strangled.

IRISHMAN TELLS JUDGE HE CANNOT BEHAVE HIMSELF

New York, February 13.—(AP)—James Finley, arrested for the eighth time for disorderly conduct, pleaded for another chance. The magistrate, taking note of the day, remarked that if Finley stayed over night, he, too, like Lincoln, might become president. But Finley thought not.

"Don't be so modest," said the court. "It isn't modest," said Finley. "I was born in Ireland." Sentence was suspended.

GIRL, 22, IS HELD FOR U. S. GRAND JURY

Jewell Jackson, 22, was held for the federal grand jury Monday by United States Commissioner L. S. Leibel after a prohibition charge following her arrest by City Officers J. A. Allen and Eugene Head last week. The girl was arrested in a touring car while a male companion escaped, officers said. Bond was fixed at $200 when the girl waived preliminary trial.

INFECTED RABBITS STOLEN, OFFICIALS FEAR FOR PUBLIC

Paris, February 13.—(AP)—Police were searching Paris today for twelve rabbits and three ducks stolen from a garden on the Boulevard Brune.

It wasn't the intrinsic value of the rabbits which caused such a flurry, but the fact that the garden was that of Dr. Charles Richet, eminent pathologist. The rabbits and ducks had been infected with grave diseases as an experiment a few days ago.

It was feared that the thieves might try to market the dangerous animals and fowl as meat.

HUSBAND KILLS WIFE AND MAN FOUND IN HOME

Williamson, W. Va., February 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Daisy Lawrence, 17, and Emory Yarbrough, 30, of Cindarella, were killed by the young woman's husband, Robert Lawrence, 19, in his home in East Williamson Sunday, the state police reported today.

According to the police, Lawrence said he shot the couple when he found they were on intimate terms. Lawrence surrendered and was lodged in the Mingo county jail.

NORRIS TO GET SENATE ACTION ON SHOALS BILL

Washington, February 13.—(AP)—Early consideration of the resolution of Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, for government operation of Muscle Shoals was indicated today by the senate republican steering committee.

While no definite program was deemed necessary just now Senator Snodgrass, republican, Kentucky, chairman of the committee, said the Muscle Shoals resolution probably would be given the right of way upon the disposition of the house measure for return of alien property and the Walsh power investigation resolution.

LEE MEMORIAL BILL STIRS SENATE ROW

Washington, February 13.—(United Press)—A bill to appropriate $500,000 for memorials to the civil war Generals Grant and Lee caused an acrimonious Lincoln day debate in the senate today. That bill was introduced by Senator Bleas, South Carolina democrat.

Immediate consideration was blocked by Senator Snodgrass, republican, objected on the ground that it should first go to a committee. "That's what I expected coming from the north," Bleas said.

Snodgrass said he would have offered the same objection if the bill had provided a statue for either Grant or Lee alone. The bill was referred to the library committee, as Bleas commented, "I've had 15 bills sent to committee this session, but only one came back."

Previously in a Lincoln day address, Snodgrass had warned against what he described as "the share of political internationalism." Charging that a "socialist propaganda" was being conducted to draw this country "into internationalism against the advice of Abraham Lincoln," he said, "It is impossible for me to be a citizen of any League of Nations and of the United States at the same time."

SPOKESMAN SAYS GERMANY READY FOR U. S. TRAVEL

Berlin, February 13.—(AP)—While no official proposal from Secretary of State Kellogg for a German-American arbitration treaty has yet reached the German foreign office, its spokesmen declared today that Germany would greatly welcome such a project. It was stated that Germany's one tire post-war policy has been one of building up a system of substitutes for the resort to force and that she is willing to go as far as any nation in the application of the principle of arbitration.

Home for Friendless Drive Workers Report Response to Appeal

Taking the field in an effort to obtain $50,000 to complete the fund being raised for construction of a new home for the friendless, workers Monday reported on the first day of the appeal that the response was gratifying.

The new home to be constructed in Boulevard Park will cost $100,000 and half of this fund has already been subscribed, leaving the remaining half for which the workers are asking citizens to make their gifts.

The appeal will be extended throughout the week. Authorized solicitors are equipped with official subscription blanks and will enroll all who desire to donate to the worthy cause.

AN OBLIGING BEAUTY DOCTOR

A Beauty Specialist Gives Home-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair: "Anyone can prepare a mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1-4 ounce of glycerine."

These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and will not rub off."—(adv.)

AUTO ASSOCIATION LEADERS COMING

Washington, February 13.—(Special)—Atlanta is one of the principal points to be visited by the executive committee of the American Automobile association in its forthcoming tour of the south and southeast, according to announcement from A. A. A. national headquarters today.

The itinerary of the A. A. A. party is not yet complete, but it was definitely stated that the tour would start from Atlanta and will be launched with a meeting of the executive committee on Monday, February 20, when conferences will be held with local motor club officials and with business and civic leaders of the city on various matters pertaining to motor touring and to the development of motor club services.

The executive committee of the A. A. A., which is composed of outstanding business men from every section of the country, is as follows: Thomas P. Henry, Detroit, president; Charles M. Hayes, Chicago; William E. Metzger, Detroit; Robert P. Hooper, Philadelphia; Roy F. Britton, St. Louis; Fred H. Caley, Cleveland; Harry E. Harkness, Birmingham, N. Y.; Arthur M. Hill, Charleston, W. Va.; A. E. Mitterdorf, Cincinnati; Percy J. Walker, San Francisco; Charles C. Jones, Columbus, Ohio; secretary A. A. A.; and Ernest N. Smith, Washington, general manager.

First City on Tour. "Atlanta," the A. A. A. statement said, "was selected as the first city on the tour of the executive committee because of its tremendous importance as the focal point of many motor highways, a strategic position which makes it one of the greatest motor tourist cities of America."

"It is estimated that Atlanta acts as host to 750 motorists each day and few cities have kept in such close touch with the motor tourists within its gates. As the terminus of the great historic and scenic highway from Montreal to Atlanta, which traverses the Appalachians and handles a large part of the north and south travel; as the gateway to the great gulf coast region and to Florida, Atlanta is a pivotal point in the A. A. A. service chain now established in 956 cities and towns in the United States."

Other cities to be visited by the A. A. A. executive committee are Savannah, Ga., Jacksonville, Fla., Orlando, Fla., and possibly Daytona Beach, Miami and Key West.

To Secure Information. The tour of the south is in line with a national policy whereby the executive committee pays periodic visits to the different sections of the United States in order that detailed first-hand information may be secured on motoring conditions, including facilities for handling out-of-state motorists, services rendered by the A. A. A. motor clubs, road building programs, motor vehicle taxation, the progress toward uniformity of traffic regulations, and the development of measures for street and highway safety, a phase of activity to which the A. A. A. and its affiliated clubs are devoting more and more of their resources.

SIMILAR NAMES CAUSE OF ARREST OF WRONG HARRIS

Similarity of name led to the arrest of the wrong man for an alleged liquor violation, according to the claim of John Harris, 18, of Cherokee county.

Young Harris appeared Monday at the offices of the clerk of United States district court, after a ride from his home in the rain, to untangle the situation caused by the alleged mistake in identity. He said that he was arrested at his home by a deputy marshal and charged with being the John Harris who is alleged to have escaped when a liquor car was seized with 117 gallons of whisky on January 22, 1927.

The arrest occurred on January 20, 1928, almost a year to the day after the alleged liquor violation, and after an appearance before United States Commissioner T. W. Kellogg he was held for the grand jury under $500 bond. Harris told court officers. Harris said that he was working at a state mine in Bartow county at the time of the alleged violation, and that, furthermore, he could not drive an automobile. After promising him that the case would be thoroughly investigated, court officers told Harris to return to the federal building today, and that, if his claim of mistaken identity is established, an effort will be made to have the bond set aside.

ATTORNEYS SEEK SOVIET CLEMENCY FOR YOUNG SLAYER

Odessa, Ukraine, February 13.—(AP) Counsel for Vladimir Dobrovolsky, 23-year-old Russian who today was sentenced to death by shooting for the murder of the Italian vice consul, Signor Cozzio, on December 28, have carried the case before the Ukrainian executive committee seeking clemency on account of the youth of the prisoner.

The vice consul was killed with a heavy stone. When Dobrovolsky was arrested he was wearing his victim's clothes and attempting to sell valuables taken from the Italian. The court today rejected the defense which alleged that the consul was drunk and that Dobrovolsky slew him in self-defense.

COTTON BAGGING SUPERIOR TO JUTE, IS BOARD REPORT

Washington, February 13.—(AP)—Cotton bagging is superior to jute as a covering for cotton bales, the department of agriculture announced today after a test shipment of four bales to Germany and return.

The bales covered with cotton bagging were much neater and in better condition generally than those wrapped with jute, a department representative in Hamburg declared. Breaking strength experiments following the shipping test also showed the new product to be more durable.

"Adoption of cotton bagging probably would force the price of jute to unusually low levels," the statement said. "Decided economies in transportation and insurance costs would also result from the use of a lighter weight covering."

GARNER SEES VETO OF BILL TO CUT TAX

Washington, February 13.—(AP)—The prediction that there would be no tax legislation at this session of congress was made today by Representative Garner, of Texas, democratic leader on the house ways and means committee which drafted the $200,000,000 revenue measure now awaiting action by the senate.

"No one as yet has challenged my statement that the tax bill is being held up deliberately because the democratic amendment abolishing affiliated tax returns by corporations will increase the total taxes of large corporations by about $50,000,000," Garner continued.

No one either has challenged my statement that this amendment will increase the taxes of corporations in which Secretary Mellon personally is interested by $1,000,000 if not considerably more.

U. S. COURT CALENDAR CONTAINS 100 CASES

The calendar of United States district court for the week of February 27 is now being made up at the offices of Clint W. Hager, federal district attorney. More than 100 prohibition, motor vehicle theft, postal and other cases are slated for trial during the week.

Federal Judge Robert T. Irwin, of Mobile, will probably assist Federal Judge Samuel H. Sibley in disposing of the large calendar of criminal cases, it was learned Monday.

It Costs No More

THIS new Allen's is approximately three times as large as the old store on Whitehall Street. This new store is our very own, naturally the rental is lower! The mathematics of the situation are simple, clear and definite. An increased selling space and mounting volume of business operate automatically on prices, lowering them. In other words, the superb equipment and the surpassing beauty of the new store are as free as air.

Beautiful fashions in a beautiful environment cost no more. Costless, in fact. Increased volume, decreased prices. The ratio is inverted.

Central of Georgia Railway Gives Information About Rates and Service

Users of transportation have received for the past few years and are now receiving the best service in history. Car shortages, congestion, excessive delays in transit and the like no longer hinder business. Dependable service is an asset to every shipper and receiver of freight.

The transportation achievements of 1927 are matters of record. Last year the condition of both freight cars and locomotives was the best ever recorded, freight trains carried heavier loads and moved faster than ever before, the average daily movement per freight car was the highest ever attained, new records in fuel economy were established.

All of this resulted in a saving in operating costs, but did not bring about increased profits to the owners of the railways. On the contrary, although there was a larger investment in facilities in 1927, the year witnessed a substantial decline in net earnings.

This was in large part due to the fact that the rates received by the railways for carrying freight have been constantly declining for the past seven years. The last increase in rates went into effect on August 26, 1920, but since that date general and specific reductions and adjustments have gradually whittled away advances made then. As a result, prevailing rate levels are now practically back to where they were before the 1920 advance, and still further reductions are being made. The public is enjoying the double benefits of improved service and decreased rates.

The process of passing on to the public the savings in operating costs due to increased efficiency and economy is one that has a limit. It is now approaching a point that might endanger the quality of railway service. Good railway service is helpful to every kind of business and commerce, and it is now being supplied at low freight rates. Poor railway service would handicap every activity of production and distribution, and would not be cheap at any price.

The kind of service that the railways can supply in future cannot be determined solely by the degree of intelligence and economy displayed by railway management. It will depend upon the soundness and constructiveness of public opinion as evidenced in the attitude of legislative and regulatory agencies toward an adequate level of rates that will permit the railroads to succeed. This is a question that deserves the attention of all who have an interest in continued good service.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

'HAMMER SLAYER' CONFESSES CRIME

Philadelphia, Pa., February 13.—(AP)—Caught in a hotel of the Volunteers of America here, Cecil Clyde Campbell, New York business man and soldier, confessed to police he is the man who killed the woman found dead in the Grand hotel, New York.

A week ago today the body of the woman, Mrs. Mary Lillian McClelland Campbell, hotel in pajamas, was found in the hotel, her head crushed with a hammer. She and Campbell had registered as Mr. and Mrs. T. M. James, of Troy, N. Y. The prisoner, who is 43, confessed to police he had struck her on the head with the hammer while she looked in his face.

Admits 'Suicide Pact.'
"It was a suicide pact," he said. "We prayed for forgiveness first." In telling his story, Campbell produced a year-old "joke" photograph apparently taken at an amusement park of a man about to strike a woman with a hammer, to illustrate how he killed the woman in New York.

"This is how we agreed to die," he said. "I was to kill her and then myself." Financial reverses, said Campbell, had led to the decision to end their lives.

"It was part of my intention to kill myself," he said. "I fully intended to do this at first. I walked to the window with the intention of jumping, but I lost my nerve and left the room."

Planned to Pay Debts.
"Next I thought of drowning myself but I remembered I owed some money and I didn't want to die before I killed myself. I would clean up my debts."

"I had an money and I couldn't get work. When I went to the Volunteers of America here I told them I was held up and robbed. I was on my way to see my sister in Phoenix, Virginia."

Paramount Girl in Style Program at Rich's Today

Dith interest in her visit so keen that crowds stood in the rain all day Monday to watch her, Edna Kirby, the "glass house girl," who is living for a week in the display windows of the M. Rich & Bros. Co., today will carry out a busy and interesting "style day" program.

At 11 o'clock this morning living models will appear in the "apartment unique" with her and display gorgeous clothing from the Rich stocks, and following the style show will go on a shopping tour in the Rich building with Miss Kirby. At 1 o'clock Miss Kirby, who is prominent in Paramount pictures in Hollywood, will have members of the Rose-Marie company playing at the Elzinger theater as her luncheon guests in the sixth floor tea room, and the models again will stage a style show for the benefit of patrons present.

On Wednesday Miss Kirby will present drapes and interior decorations in the Rich store, and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon will attend a special display in living models of women's lingerie.

386 REGISTERED FOR BABY CLINIC
The Atlanta Lions club's baby clinic swung into its second week of preparatory campaign with a banquet at the Biltmore hotel Monday night, at which Irving Camp, international Lions president, and Eugene R. Black, newly-named governor of the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank, went on record as heartily endorsing the movement.

The banquet topped off the first day of registration of babies for examination for defects at the clinic, 386 babies being registered. Aside from practically the entire roster of the local club, the banquet was attended by the 20 young women representing as many Atlanta firms, who are engaged in raising funds to finance the project by selling tickets to a concert hall at the city auditorium on March 3.

They heard Mr. Black declare that it was a great work, and that it undoubtedly would do a great service. He commended the civic spirit of the club and pledged to its support. Glowing Picture of South. Mr. Black painted a glowing picture of the south in a new era of vigorous industrial expansion.

"In West Virginia you will see iron and steel and great activity and in its border state, Virginia, you will see giant tobacco factories turning over millions of dollars and giving work to thousands and thousands of people."

"Come across to the seaboard and down. I'm happy to announce that in the cotton mills of North Carolina there are more active hours of production than in Massachusetts, making it first in the nation in this division. And from the northern border of North Carolina to the southern border of its sister state you can hardly lose sight of a cotton mill."

"It is not that these mills are moving to the cotton belt. Cotton has long since ceased to be our tyrant, and there is no definitely defined cotton belt now. They are moving south because the labor in the south is more plentiful and because it is free from the trouble and turmoil of northern labor."

"In Georgia you will see a million more acres in corn than in cotton. Our peanut crop is worth $10,000,000 annually, our peanut crop is worth $25,000,000 annually and our farming and industry is more greatly interested than ever before."

"This intensity will be manifest in each state you cross from Atlanta to New Orleans."

"And Florida remains the most beautiful state in the nation. It has had its troubles, but today it has more paved roads than any other southern state and it is fundamentally sound."

Mr. Camp recounted the activities of Lions clubs in all parts of the world in aiding the blind and underprivileged children and declared that the work of Lions in Atlanta eventually would benefit the city to an extent that could not be determined by valuation.

At the banquet, Dr. Witherspoon Dodge delivered the invocation and J. O. Partain, district Lions governor, introduced Mr. Camp. Clark Howell, Jr., of The Constitution, was introduced to the gathering as one who represented an institution doing untold service in aiding the Lions club in this civic enterprise.

During the day mothers flocked to the registration offices, 10 Peachtree street, some with their babies and some without. A number of fathers also made their appearance with registration requests. The first infant to be registered was Betty Wright, aged 1, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wright, of 850 North avenue, N. E.

When Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Russell, who are in charge of the clinic, opened the office at 8:30 o'clock, a half hour before schedule, Mrs. Wright and her infant were waiting. So were several other mothers. The first pair of twins was composed of Martha and Ernest, 17 months, the pride of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sturges, 702 Lexington avenue.

The registrations continued through the day with vigor and it is expected that the registration of 1,000 will be closed by Thursday, if not sooner.

Before noon 290 had been received, and the office was closed at 5 o'clock with the day's total of 386 accounted for.

Gold Mine Death Toll Fixed at 39
Timmins, Ont., February 13.—(United News).—The death toll in the Hollinger Consolidated gold mine disaster was definitely set at 39 tonight.

The last of the 39 bodies has been recovered. Only 12 of the miners entombed by fire Friday morning were rescued. Criticism of mine interests for allowing rubbish to collect on the slope where the fire started has been leveled. Rubbish was said to have been accumulating for six years, and had nearly filled the slope with highly combustible material.

More Bodies Recovered.
Eighteen of the bodies of the men trapped when fire started Friday were recovered Sunday night and the others were found today.

Hampered by lack of equipment, rescuers battled their way through poisonous monoxide gas to the level where the miners were entombed. Wives and children of the trapped men waited hours for the bodies to be recovered. Rubbish was said to have been accumulating for six years, and had nearly filled the slope with highly combustible material.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER BRIDGE RECEIVES SENATE SANCTION
Washington, February 13.—(AP)—The Baton Rouge-Mississippi river bridge company today was granted permission by the senate to construct a toll bridge across the Mississippi river at or near Baton Rouge, La. The measure already had passed the house and now goes to the president.

ASKS FOR BRIDGE OVER WHITE RIVER.
Washington, February 13.—(AP)—A bill to authorize the Arkansas highway commission to build a toll bridge across the White river at or near Newport, Ark., was introduced in the house today by Representative Oldfield, democrat, Arkansas.

DANCE NUMBERS, MUSIC ENTERTAIN JUNIOR CHAMBER
A program consisting of novelty dance numbers and music by the Junior Chamber of Commerce orchestra will be given at a monthly meeting Monday night in the chamber of commerce building. It was the first meeting of its kind and it has been planned to hold one every month.

ATLANTIAN INJURED IN FLORIDA WRECK
Jacksonville, Fla., February 13.—(AP)—Black Davis, 20, Atlanta, is in a hospital suffering a possible fractured neck and his companion, Florence Reed, 17, Jacksonville, is recovering from minor injuries as the result of an automobile accident on a highway near here today.

Davis' car overturned on a curve when he is believed to have lost control of it.

PREACHER IS STAR AT MURDER TRIAL
Wentworth, N. C., February 13.—Whether or not a minister's story of an alleged confession by a penitent is competent evidence will be threshed out in the courts of North Carolina at the trial, beginning here tomorrow, of Mrs. Alma Petty Gatlin, charged with the ax murder of her father, Smith T. Petty.

Arraigned at a special term of superior court today, Mrs. Gatlin pleaded not guilty to an indictment which was largely based on the story of the Rev. Thomas F. Pardue, itinerant evangelist who claims that the 20-year-old woman confessed her father's murder to him while attending one of his revival services last May in Reidsville, eight miles from here, where the Petty lives. There is not a law in North Carolina covering the relations between a minister and penitent.

Pastor Went to Police.
State's officers hold that the minister's story will be admitted if it is alleged to have disclosed facts which enter into the case. After the young woman was said to have confessed to the Rev. Pardue, he went to authorities and related the story. An investigation was made and the body was found buried in the cellar of the Petty home at Reidsville with ax wounds in the head as related by the minister.

Smith T. Petty, neighbors said, had been accustomed to leaving home and house in the morning. He was missing at the time, so that when he disappeared in December, 1926, they thought nothing of it and believed him away on one of his usual absences. In February, 1927, his wife gave birth to a child which died. The mother herself died in March.

Find Body in Grave.
Then, May, the Rev. Pardue claims, Mrs. Gatlin voluntarily came to him at a revival service and confessed the murder of her father, at the same time disclosing where the body was buried. The minister did not say whether the young woman gave a motive for the killing, but he told officers where to dig and the body was uncovered.

After the arraignment today, the court ordered a venire of two hundred men from Rockingham county, from which the jury will be drawn if possible. If no jury is obtained in this county, a venire will be obtained from Stokes county.

CONQUER REBELS IN 4-HOUR FIGHT
Mexico City, February 13.—(United News).—Dispatches from the interior today said that federal troops had killed 12 rebels in a four-hour combat with 400 rebel prisoners who were captured were executed, the dispatches said. The rebel forces were reported led by Francisco Del Rio, a priest.

SECRET POLICE ARREST FOUR IN RAID.
Mexico City, February 13.—(AP)—Four men have been arrested in connection with a raid by secret police on what they consider headquarters for anti-government propaganda connected with the so-called Catholic revolution.

The police in their search for the downtown office, supposedly operated as a commercial business, found mimeographed sheets and quantities of leaflets said to be subversive and in opposition to the government's enforcement of the religious laws.

PLANS FOR VIADUCTS DELAYED TWO DAYS
Detailed plans of the twin viaducts at South Pryor street and Central avenue scheduled to arrive in Atlanta February 15, will not be here until February 17, according to Walter F. Schultz, consulting engineer of the project. However, bids can be advertised for at once.

Mr. Schultz believes that actual work will not begin before May 1, due to delays that have been experienced in carrying out preliminary details incident to the construction.

The plans will be complete except for certain necessary reinforcement that will be made to handle equipment of the street railway system.

Airman's Instinct Saved Lindbergh Battle With Fog
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
The airman's "instinct" that guided Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh safely across the Atlantic stood him in good stead Monday in his 1,200-mile flight from Havana to St. Louis, in the opinion of local weather bureau officials.

Explaining that the fog and rain which hid the "Lone Eagle" from the south were caused by the convergence of two marked low pressure areas, one originating in the southwest and the other in the Gulf, weather forecasters here said the flier passed through and over part of both of them.

"He could not have known exactly what conditions were," a forecaster in C. F. von Herrmann's office said, "if it were correct that he received no information before taking off at Havana, but his experience and instinct probably told him what we learned from accurate charts."

The fact that there were two layers of clouds moving northeastward with the storm centers, The first probably was not over 2,000 feet above the earth and the second probably two miles up.

"Lindbergh undoubtedly flew between the layers and with an airman's instinct probably knew the lower layer was protection from the high winds which the storm areas were sucking in. He probably had comparatively smooth flying weather when he found his bearings in the distance. That must have taxed his ability as a flier, particularly since he probably flew by dead reckoning."

came into the flying field from the west.

This is the method used by mail fliers and other airmen of Lambert-St. Louis field when the weather does not permit them to find their bearings by the city.

Beesged with inquiries about his plans for the future, Lindbergh replied: "I have no plans beyond flying the mail next Monday."

"Are you tired?" asked a reporter. "No," said the flier with a laugh. "Did you have anything to eat?" "What's that got to do with it?" he replied, grinning.

Goggles pushed upon his leather flying helmet, Lindbergh was escorted to a hangar. After greetings there he was taken in charge by Harry Hall Knight, at the home of whose father, Harry French Knight, Lindbergh was a guest tonight. The Knights were backers of Lindbergh in his trans-Atlantic flight.

General comment was that a worse day could hardly have been chosen for the return to the home field. This was emphasized when the Chicago mail plane, in which Bud Gurney, a veteran flier, took off at 4:30 p. m., returned soon afterward. Gurney said the atmosphere to the northeast was so dense that he thought it best to turn back.

Weather bureau officials said conditions along Lindbergh's entire route were nearly as bad as at the landing

RECEIVES NEWSPAPERS AFTER SHORT REST.
St. Louis, February 13.—(AP)—Some what refreshed from the 1,200-mile flight he made today from Havana, Colonel Lindbergh received newspapers at the home of a friend here tonight and discussed his good-will tour.

With typical Lindbergh modesty the flier declined to say what benefit he believed would accrue to aviation as the result of his latest flight. Asked to comment on what he believed would be the result of his peaceful mission as an ambassador of the air to promote friendly relations among the Latin-American republics, Lindbergh said:

"I would rather say more things than I could say. He said he was convinced, however, that air lines between the United States, Central America and South America were practicable and eventually would be established."

"So far as I was able to determine," he said, "there are no greater obstacles in the path of aviation in the tropics than in this country. I believe air lines between the United States and the Latin-American republics are practicable. Such transportation also is feasible between the South American republics. There is nothing to retard its progress once it is started."

Lindbergh said that in his opinion his good-will tour of the south has demonstrated that aircraft can be used longer and can stand more wear and tear than has been generally believed.

MOTHER TAUGHT CLASSES DURING FLIGHT.
Detroit, Mich., February 13.—(United News).—While her son was engaged in a 1,200-mile non-stop flight through foggy weather, Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh continued teaching her chemistry classes at Cass High school today, refusing to display any emotion.

When school was out she went to the home of her brother, Dr. C. H. Land, and there received news bulletins on Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's whereabouts. There was obvious relief in her voice when she was told by telephone that her son had landed without difficulty, but she merely commented, "That's fine," and had nothing further to say.

DEMOCRATS SCORE DRY LAW IN DEBATE
Washington, February 13.—(AP)—Prohibition was assailed today in the house by Representatives Gallivan, of Massachusetts, and Linticum, of Maryland, both democrats.

Assistant Treasury Secretary Lowman, in charge of enforcement, and the Anti-Saloon league were declared by Gallivan to be subordinating "the constitution" to the eighteenth amendment. He also demanded the impeachment of Judge Schindler, of the District of Columbia police court, for the dismissal of a jury which had acquitted two men in a prohibition case.

Denies Law Stops Drinking.
Linticum, who is chairman of the house unoffical committee on the modification of the Volstead act, declared that prohibition had not prevented an increase of liquor consumption and drunkenness.

Urging modification to correct "the evils of the present law and to establish true temperance he declared that crime has increased materially throughout the country and that "prohibition enforcement from the beginning has been characterized by graft, bribery and other corruption."

"Prohibition grows more insolent and intolerant daily," declared Gallivan, "in its efforts to distort law and invent new methods of oppressing a foolishly submissive people. The premises of prohibition are strangling the American Gulliver and inaugurating a reign of misrule."

Frightens Suitor Away With Revolver, Negro Swain Lands in Bastille
Determined that his girl should not marry a rival negro—a determination so compelling that it prompted him to stand guard at the bride's home with a pistol in his hand—landed Grady Thrasher, negro, in jail late Sunday afternoon. He was tried before Recorder A. W. Gallaway Monday afternoon and bound over to the state court under $100 bond, charged with carrying a pistol without a license.

When arraigned before the recorder the negro was forced to stand by and hear the arresting officers relate a story of how another negro went to the girl's home at Marietta and Corpus streets Sunday for the purpose of taking her for his bride.

In answer to questions from the recorder, Thrasher said that he wanted the girl himself and that no other negro was going to get her. "I'd fight for her and I'd die for her," he said, "but I don't want to go to jail for her."

"Do you still love the girl?" Judge Callaway asked Thrasher.

"Yassah, judge, but I loves my liberty more. Thrasher replied.

INDUSTRIAL MEET IN ATHENS LAUDED

Athens, Ga., February 12.—(Special.)—The twelfth annual country-fair conference of the Georgia State Industrial college, which was held last week at the State Agricultural college here, was declared by officials to be the best ever held.

The conference, which continued for four days, was devoted to agricultural and home life subjects, ranging from self-improvement to home and community beautification.

Thursday was designated and observed as "health day" at the gathering, and a number of speakers delivered addresses to the scores of farmers, their wives and other persons attending, while Friday was given over to talks by prominent speakers bearing on the history of the Industrial college.

Visitors were entertained with a musical show, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and a fashion show was staged by the department of dressmaking of the college.

Prominent Visitors.

Among those present at the conference were Dr. H. O. Sargent, federal agent for vocational education of Washington, D. C.; Walter R. Hill, special supervisor of education, Atlanta; Professor H. W. Harvey, state horticulturist; Dr. A. G. G. Richardson, state veterinarian; Mrs. Lelia R. Mize, state home demonstration agent; Mrs. Willie V. Dowdy, state home beautification specialist; and Miss Lurline Collier, all of the University of Georgia, Athens; Dr. P. S. Gammon, head of the poultry department, Hampton Institute, Virginia; Dr. J. M. Watson, state-wide missionary of the national Baptist convention, Columbia, S. C.; Rev. E. C. Thomas, of Savannah, as well as every farm and home demonstration agent in the state and many teachers of vocational agriculture.

SCHOOL NOT AIDED BY ATLANTA GIFTS

A report printed in North Carolina newspapers and credited to The Atlanta Constitution to the effect that gifts of Atlanta had been received by Miss Margaret Harry of the Highlands, N. C., chapter, American Red Cross, for the Highlands public school, is denied by T. L. Tolar, principal of the Highlands high school, in a letter to The Constitution.

The story said, according to Mr. Tolar, that W. A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools, was given a letter from Miss Harry by Mrs. Emily Harrison, in which Miss Harry acknowledged receipt of commodities from Atlanta in behalf of the Highlands public school.

Mr. Tolar's statement follows: "Benevolent Atlantans have responded nobly and generously to the needs of the Highlands chapter of the American Red Cross. Those donations have been used in promoting the work and fulfilling the needs of the chapter here. The money has not been used to promote or assist directly the work of the public school of Highlands."

"In a spirit of prejudice, the chapter here in Highlands wants it clearly understood to everybody that the public school of the town is supported only by the state of North Carolina, and district two, Highlands. The department of the Georgia State Teachers' association; Dr. P. P. Watson, state-wide missionary of the national Baptist convention, Columbia, S. C.; Rev. E. C. Thomas, of Savannah, as well as every farm and home demonstration agent in the state and many teachers of vocational agriculture."

Democratic Body Resolution Sent To Sen. George

Copies of resolution adopted Saturday by the state democratic executive committee authorizing United States Senator Walter F. George to name the Georgia delegates to the democratic national convention at Houston, Texas, on June 26, were mailed to Senator George Monday. It was announced Monday afternoon by Mrs. Bessie Anderson, secretary of the committee.

Dispatches from Washington stated that Senator George had taken steps to act on the resolution because he had not received official notification of the action of the committee. In all probability this will reach the senator's office Wednesday or Thursday.

Mrs. Anderson had to transcribe some of the resolutions and was not able to mail them until Monday.

KINGSLAND BOY WINS CORN-GROWING PRIZE

E. J. Davis, Kingsland, Ga., produced 127 1/2 bushels of corn on an acre, at a cost of 22 cents per bushel, with a net profit of $89, thereby winning the $400 scholarship of the Georgia State College of Agriculture, given by the Chilean Nitrate of soda educational bureau, it was announced Monday.

Eleven other boys completing this contest, produced an average of 78.8 bushels of corn per acre, with a net profit of $46.15 per acre, using an average of 312 pounds of nitrate of soda, 306 pounds of acid phosphate and 42 pounds of muriate of potash per acre.

This scholarship is being continued in 1928, under the same plan as in 1927. Anyone interested in competing for this year's scholarship can secure full detailed information from the Georgia State College of Agriculture, its county agent, or teacher of vocational agriculture.

ATHENS HI TO ENTER STATE PIANO CONTEST

Athens, Ga., February 13.—More than 2,000 high school girls and boys are now at work in preparation for the music contest which will be held in each congressional district this spring. Dr. J. S. Stewart, professor of secondary education at the University of Georgia, announces.

The state high school piano contest this year is based on No. 10 of Bach's two-part inventions, which must be played by all contestants. After finishing this, the contestants may play a selection from either one of the following composers: Mendelssohn, Schubert, Schumann, Chopin, Grieg, MacDowell, the total time limit not to exceed eight minutes.

In discussing the state meet which will be held at the University of Georgia in June, Dr. Stewart states that Brenau college gives each district winner a scholarship amounting to $80, and the state winner a $400 scholarship, consisting of a year's expenses, board and tuition at the Brenau conservatory.

To encourage the study of music in the state, the University of Georgia summer school is planning to hold a music institute for teachers and students of music, July 22-27. George F. Graber, of New York, stars will be in charge of the institute and will lecture during the morning and afternoon sessions. Grand opera performances by New York stars will be open to those in attendance each night during the week. Dr. Stewart further states that the University of Georgia summer school is the only one in America that presents free to its students a week of grand opera.

OFFICERS REELECTED BY ATLANTA Y. M. C. A.

Re-election of Mrs. S. F. Boykin as president of the board of directors of the Atlanta Y. M. C. A. featured the annual meeting of the directors Monday at the association building on Auburn avenue.

All other officers of the organization also were reelected at the meeting. They are: Mrs. J. Guy Woodford, of New York, vice president; Mrs. R. J. Bates, treasurer; Mrs. E. Marvin Underwood, recording secretary; and Mrs. W. A. Smart, corresponding secretary.

ATLANTA CREDIT MEN TO CONVEY TONIGHT

The Atlanta Association of Credit Men will hold an open forum meeting Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the room No. 2 of the Chamber of Commerce building. This meeting will take the place of the monthly dinner.

The program will be so arranged that all members will have an opportunity to express their views on self-expression and improvement.

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The Doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are to get sick unless you relish your food, digest it properly, and keep your bowels regular.

Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles of every kind, even those of many years' standing.

Mrs. Mary Miller, of 9 Central Ave., Asheville, N. C., says: "Tanlac made my stomach like new and it does its work better than it ever had, with the result my whole system was built up fine in two weeks."

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, it's a sign you need Tanlac. It's good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks—nature's own remedies. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Around the Campus

BY E. A. LOWE,
University of Georgia.

Athens, Ga., February 13.—(Special.)—Sponsored by the Pioneer club of women students at the University of Georgia, a traveling exhibit of the Landscape school at Washington, D. C., will be on display for the benefit of students and Athenians in the war memorial hall the last week in February. There are approximately twenty-five pictures on this exhibition which comes to the university from Charleston, S. C., which were from here to Mason, where the Mason Art association will sponsor its display.

With Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, president of the Federal Council of Churches and a prominent New York minister, as the main speaker, the working committee is making final plans for the annual religious conference, which is to be held at the University of Georgia April 18 and 19.

Pastors and parents of the seventeen hundred students on the campus will be invited to Athens for the occasion, which is designed to stimulate the religious part of the students' academic training.

This will be the fourth year that the conference has been held at the university. Speakers in former years have included Newton D. Baker, secretary of the Woodrow Wilson cabinet; Dr. George E. Vinson, president of the Rockefeller foundation; and Ramon Fockel, special counsel to the League of Nations.

These conferences have been marked by an annual increase.

Dr. W. D. Hooper, professor of Latin at the University of Georgia.

OIL-O-MATIC FORCES SEE LATEST MODELS

Representatives of the Williams Oil-O-Matic oil-burning heater in the southeast Monday began a two-day tour of instruction in the Henry Grady hotel, the session being marked by introduction to dealers, mechanics and salesmen in this territory of the "Model J" Williams products.

The new Oil-O-Matic electric refrigerator being placed on the market by the Williams corporation of Bloomington, Illinois.

R. S. Griefen, southeastern divisional manager, was present in charge of the meeting, with Willis M. Timmons, vice president and sales manager of the National Products company, Atlanta. Mr. Timmons extended an invitation to the visitors to make the National Products company headquarters during the convention.

R. D. Marshall, registrar of the Williams Institute of Heat Research, opened the convention with an optimistic address that was greeted with enthusiasm by his audience. He outlined plans and policies of the company for 1928. Mr. Marshall will address a luncheon gathering of the convention at noon today. The afternoon session was devoted to technical discussion of the Oil-O-Matic and Ice-O-Matic machines by Earl N. Smith, instructor of the Williams Institute of Heat Research. Technical addresses will continue today.

In discussing the state meet which will be held at the University of Georgia in June, Dr. Stewart states that Brenau college gives each district winner a scholarship amounting to $80, and the state winner a $400 scholarship, consisting of a year's expenses, board and tuition at the Brenau conservatory.

OLD ST. JAMES CHURCH DESTROYED BY FLAMES

Flames that completely destroyed the old St. James Methodist church last night and three other structures on Market street, between Boss and Bankhead avenues, threatened to ravage the entire block early Monday morning before firemen were able to get the flames under control.

The church structure had been vacant for some time and it is believed by Chief W. B. Cady that the fire was started by a person who had been in the church, which has long been a landmark in the city.

The other buildings destroyed by the fire included the store of the Cash Feed and Grocery company, next to the church, owned by T. B. Martin, a residence in the rear of the church, owned by Mr. Martin and occupied by C. E. Bates, and a negro residence adjacent to it. Six companies of the fire department were dispatched to the scene.

According to Mrs. John J. Wood, Sr., of 125 Fifteenth street, N. E., who is the daughter of the late Captain E. M. Roberts, the church was built about 40 years ago by Captain Roberts and was known as the Bishop Hendrix mission. Later Captain Roberts gave the building to the Methodist conference and it was used by the St. James Methodist congregation. Captain Roberts was a prominent Atlanta real estate dealer.

SIBLEY WILL HOLD CITIZENSHIP HEARING

Citizenship hearings will be held today by Federal Judge Samuel H. Sibley in United States district court with approximately 75 persons, representing 17 foreign countries, seeking final papers. Preliminary examination of the candidates for citizenship papers was held Monday by Worthington Blanton, district director of naturalization.

The hearing claims that it was not liable for the amount of tax it seeks to recover, on the ground that the petition alleges the payment of interest at 7 per cent and court costs by the defendant.

64-YEAR-OLD VALENTINE Tucker Woman Received Taken During Civil War.

A valentine owned by Mrs. Sarah A. Ross, of Tucker, Ga., who is the mother of Mrs. W. C. Morris, 2363 Briarcliff road, Atlanta, will be 64 years old today.

The valentine, a sheet of 8x10 writing paper, decorated with hearts and flowers and with a 12-line verse in which the valentiner was sent to Mrs. Ross when she was 10 years old by her father, Captain W. H. Miller, of the thirty-eighth Georgia infantry, with the Confederate army in Virginia, February 14, 1864.

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes are composed of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries. The warm smoke vapor is inhaled into the affected air passages and will go where sprays, douches and salves cannot reach. They contain no tobacco or rubbers, and being harmless, are used by children, as well as adults.

If you suffer from any catarrhal trouble, catarrhal deafness, hoarseness, asthma, hay fever, bronchial irritations, or are subject to frequent colds, get a pocket-size package of Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes, and prove for yourself their pleasant, beneficial effects.

"Quality Has No Substitute"

That's an old one, but a true one and a good one. Every business executive should memorize it, for when ignored, the penalty comes in lost orders. Select your printer with care. Pay him fair prices for his work, but demand quality. Or better still, select a printer with equipment adapted to, and workmen skilled in the art of high-quality printing.

GREAT RAIL TRIP PLAN IS OFFERED

Introducing an entirely new plan by which persons who have frequent occasion to make trips between two points not more than 200 miles apart are given the benefit of reduced rates for travel by rail, the Southern Railway system, effective Wednesday, February 15, will place multiple two tickets on sale at all of its ticket offices.

Details of the new plan were announced by Assistant General Passenger Agent J. C. Beaman of the Southern Railway. The tickets will be sold in books of 10, 20 or 30 rides, the rate for the 10-ride tickets being 2.5 cents per mile; for the 20-ride tickets, 2 cents per mile; and for the 30-ride tickets, 1.5 cents per mile. As an illustration, where the one-way fare is $1 the 10-ride ticket will be sold for $7.50; the 20-ride ticket for $11.50, and the 30-ride ticket for $15.50, a similar reduction being made for all points between which these tickets will be sold.

These tickets will be good only for the transportation of the individual purchaser and for use in day coaches, as they will not be accepted in parlor or sleeping cars. They can be used for a period of six months from date of sale and unused portions can be redeemed where the regular fares for the individual rides made do not exceed the price of the multiple ticket, thus protecting the purchaser from any loss. All coupons will be good for rides in either direction.

GOOD-WILL BODY NAMES NEW HEADS

Election of Dr. Benjamin O. Holtzendorf, as president of the Atlanta good-will industries council, and report of $2,764.17, spent during 1927 in giving 2,025 days of employment to needy persons featured the annual meeting of the organization.

The employment was given to persons repairing cast-off clothing and furniture turned over to the council by 10,000 Atlantans.

Besides Dr. Holtzendorf the following were elected: Rev. Marvin Williams, vice president; Otis Cook, treasurer; Miss Aurelia Taylor, recording secretary; Miss Heather Hooten, corresponding secretary; Claude Bennett, publicity secretary and Rev. W. J. DeBardeleben, chaplain.

The following chairmen for standing committees were named: Mrs. W. C. McDonald, rag committee; Rev. L. L. Russell, religious work; Mrs. S. Frank Boykin, cooperation and extension; J. V. Wellborn, wars and means; Frank Doughman, publicity; and W. B. Shirley, superintendent.

The following compose the board of directors: Rev. John S. Jenkins, Rev. W. L. Pierce, Dr. Harvey W. Cox, Judge John D. Humphries, Claude S. Bennett, Charles J. Haden, J. V. Wellborn, John A. Mangel, Frank Evans, Frank Doughman, Ben F. Bates, Rev. W. T. Hunnicutt, Rev. L. L. Russell, Mrs. H. C. Montgomery, Mrs. H. W. Grant, Mrs. D. C. White, Mrs. Charles R. Fox, Mrs. A. L. Norris, Mrs. S. Hardman Slated To Make Talk On Georgia Today

Governor L. G. Hardman is scheduled to deliver the principal address in a Georgia day class in non-militarism at the Georgia Institute of Technology, North Avenue Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock tonight. A group of Georgia songs, written by Frank L. Stanton, will be sung by the Junior High School Glee club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Marsh. The Senior High School orchestra, under Miss Spencer, will also take part.

Georgia day was observed in all Atlanta schools Monday with special programs commemorating the 195th anniversary of the day on which General James Edward Oglethorpe planted the flag of King George II of England at the foot of Yamocra bluff at Savannah and founded the Colony of Georgia.

Since February contains many important historical dates, birthdays of various leaders, and the like, the month has been set aside as Georgia month. Each day of importance is observed with a program touching on that day, and to Atlanta schools Georgia day was just one of the month's many important dates.

The Colony of Georgia was founded on February 12. When the state legislature of 1900 set aside February 12 as regular anniversary of the date to be observed in public schools, it stipulated that when the day was Sunday the following Monday should be made the day of commemoration.

The state department of education Monday said that schools throughout Georgia will be urged to join in with Georgia day programs.

Plans for the new city hall to be erected at Washington and Mitchell streets were considered Monday by the building service committee of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers. The committee of experts with members of the bond commission, a special committee from the local association, and a special committee from city council is in session at the Biltmore hotel. The meeting will last Monday afternoon.

The tentative drawings, prepared by G. Lloyd Preacher and associates, are being reviewed.

The out-of-town committee is composed of Earle Shultz, chairman, Chicago; W. M. Malin, Cleveland; W. B. Baker, Boston; F. S. Sidney, Buffalo; L. B. Emeling, secretary, and P. E. Holcomb, research engineer of the national association, Chicago.

Reports of the arrest of 14 persons in liquor raids near Gainesville during the past week were received Monday by Howard P. Wright, deputy prohibition administrator.

In raiding a still near Gainesville the agents, J. W. Epley and J. R. Kinsey, found that the operators had equipped themselves with an alarm by stringing black thread through the bushes. Homer H. Southern and Jesse Southern were arrested on liquor charges following this raid, the agents reported.

Agents Epley and Kinsey reported the arrest of Dock Allen, Son Stephens, Steve Shelton, Jimmie Howard, Lee Hawkins, Harry Southard, Mark Ralston, Tom Corn, Aaron Sewell, W. L. Ralston and A. R. Warren. Agents J. B. Wallace and F. C. Cross reported the arrest of

Now! meal time is a happy event

"It is all so wonderful, I can hardly believe my eyes. When I think how badly you used to feel—didn't want anything to eat—perhaps sometimes a little grouchy and miserable, and just driving yourself by main force, I almost shudder. I know it worried you, too. You seemed to feel as though you were slipping. Then one day you brought home a bottle of S.S.S. and told me you were going to give it a trial. That was only a few weeks ago. Today you look like a new person. Your appetite is keen, your flesh is firm, and your whole being seems to radiate happiness and I am happy too, because you are well and strong again."

Loss of appetite only a symptom

It is a known fact that when one's system gets "run-down," they haven't the resistance to ward off diseases. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play.

Rich, red, blood builds and sustains

Your physician will tell you that lowered vitality is the result of an insufficient supply of red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

When you get your blood cells back up to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, loss of appetite, rheumatism, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again; sleep soundly; solid flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. You feel strong; and your nerves become steady.

Berlin, February 13.—(United News.)—Anastasia Tchaikovsky—daughter of the czar or common peasant—now in New York—is the central figure of a libel suit which the newspaper Der Tag has begun against the Tageliche Rundschau.

In the trial, which began and adjourned today, the editor of Der Tag asserted that his reporters had established the fact that the exiled Princess Anastasia is not even the wife of Tchaikovsky, but is wedded to a Polish laborer. Der Tag published in 1927 a series of articles supporting Anastasia's claim that she is the youngest daughter of the czar, and the only member of the family to escape execution in Ekaterinburg. Almost immediately after the series ended, the same newspaper published another series declaring her to be an impostor.

Then the Tageliche Rundschau accused Der Tag of double dealing, alleging that its editor admitted he changed his opinion regarding Anastasia's claim after his newspaper received 25,000 gold marks ($6,250) from Grank Duke Hesse, a possible heir to the throne of the Romanoffs.

The trial began today. One witness said that $400,000,000 was in the Bank of England whose owners were interested in the expose of Princess Anastasia. The editor of Der Tag denied he accepted any money from any source. He testified that his reporters added detective in establishing that the so-called Princess Anastasia was not even Mrs. Tchaikovsky, but the wife of a Polish farm laborer named Franciszek Tschankowski.

The Tageliche Rundschau countered by alleging that Tschankowski was killed in a street brawl years ago in Berlin's east end. The judge adjourned the case, advising the parties to settle within a month.

PRINCESS SAVES VISITOR IN HER CUE

New York, February 13.—(AP)—The New York World will say tomorrow that it has received a wireless from Mrs. William B. Leeds, the former Princess Xenia of Russia, announcing that Mrs. Tchaikovsky, the young woman who claims to be the only surviving daughter of the late czar of Russia, is in America as her guest.

The message from Mrs. Leeds, who is on a cruise in the West Indies, was signed "Princess Xenia" and read: "Mrs. Anastasia Tchaikovsky is in America as my guest for six months on account of health. Have nothing more to say."

'Lithonia,' A top Building, Assists 'Lost' U. S. Flier

The word "Lithonia" spelled out in six-foot letters on the top of a building in the little Georgia town, was the means of assuring Alvin W. Smith, pilot of the United States department of commerce, from Washington, D. C., that he was on the right air route to Candler field, it was revealed Monday afternoon, shortly after he landed safely.

Pilot Smith, who is in Atlanta in the interest of the air-mail and passenger route from New York to New Orleans, via Atlanta, stated that due to low-hanging clouds and heavy fog and mist during the forenoon, he was unable to keep on a direct route and apparently was lost when, at an altitude of about 600 feet, he saw "Lithonia" written across a building near a railroad track. He consulted an aviation map and determined that he was on the right route.

"It is gratifying to know that small towns near Atlanta have painted the name of the town on top of buildings, and in that way help develop commercial and passenger air routes," the pilot stated Monday night.

Central Chief Sees Better Rail Service At Lower Rate Level

That railroad patrons are enjoying the double benefits of improved service and decreased rates is the assertion of President John J. Pelley, of the Central of Georgia railway, in a statement published Monday. In support of his assertion, that railroad service is now better than ever before, Mr. Pelley cited the fact that the car shortages, congestion and excessive delays in transit no longer hinder business, and that dependable railroad service is an asset to every shipper and receiver of freight.

Mr. Pelley points out that while increased efficiency has reduced the railroads' operating expenses, these savings have been passed on to railroad patrons rather than to the owners of the railroads. He says: "Although there was a larger investment than ever before in railroad facilities in 1927," he says, "the year witnessed a substantial decline in net earnings. This was in large part due to the fact that the rates received by the railroads for carrying freight have been constantly declining for the past seven years, and the tendency is still downward. The last increase in rates went into effect on August 26, 1920, but since that date general and specific reductions and adjustments have gradually whittled away advanced rates. As a result, prevailing rate levels are now practically back to where they were before the 1920 advance, and still further reductions are being made. Good railway service is helpful to every kind of business and commerce and this is now being supplied at low freight rates."

TWO PERSONS HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Wilmetton Stephens, 6, colored, of 414 Auburn avenue, was slightly injured Monday morning when struck by a car driven by F. W. Boring, of 1596 Woodbine avenue, on Auburn avenue between Jackson and Boulevard, according to a report by Motor-vehicle Officers M. O. and L. W. Evans. The child ran in front of Boring's car, it was stated. A case of reckless driving made against Boring was dismissed in police court Monday afternoon.

T. R. Weaver, of 556 West Peachtree, was knocked into the rear of a street car at Five Points Sunday by an automobile driven by William E. Bridger, of 546 Capitol avenue, according to a report by Patrolman J. C. Bennett. No case was made. Weaver was slightly injured, and was treated at Grady hospital.

NAVY HOPES TO FIND 3 MISSING SAILORS

Boston, February 13.—(AP)—Three men of the crew of the U. S. navy tug Mohave missing since they set out for shore last night after the tug ran aground on Harding's ledge, two miles off Nantasket, were unaccounted for tonight although naval officers held out hopes that they were alive. The tug was fast on the ledge with 25 members of the crew safe ashore.

The three missing men, J. W. Enos, of Taunton, engineer; C. H. Reid, of Kansas City, mess attendant; and Ace D. Liles, of Jackson, Miss., crossed started ashore after the tug struck. Today the tug, right side up, was found on the shore and later life preservers which the men are believed to have worn, were found on the beach nearby. Discovery of the life preservers raised the hopes of naval officers that the men reached shore safely and then threw aside the preservers as they set out overland.

A board of investigation of three naval officers was appointed by Rear Admiral Philip Andrews, commandant of the naval district, to inquire into the accident.

ARGUMENT HALTS JACKSON'S TRIAL

Indianapolis, Ind., February 13.—(AP)—A question of law today halted the trial of Governor Ed Jackson as defense attorneys challenged the right of D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan and now a life-term prisoner, to testify against his former friend and the man he claimed to have helped elect in 1924.

Judge Charles M. McCabe ruled the question so vital to the whole trial that he adjourned court early, asking that the defense submit a brief on the question raised. He planned to stuff it tonight, along with the state's reply, and give his ruling tomorrow.

Both Sides Air Views.

The defense argued that Stephenson was not competent to testify regarding concealment of an alleged conspiracy to bring about the appointment, through bribery, of James E. McChesney, as Marion county prosecutor, because he was not a party to such alleged conspiracy.

The state asserted that Stephenson was a conspirator with Governor Warren T. McCray, and therefore was eligible to testify as to the alleged effort to keep quiet after Governor Warren T. McCray declined to prosecute, to present a motion that the case be taken from the jury.

It was a tense minute when Governor Jackson and Stephenson met for the first time in several years. Since that occasion Stephenson had fallen from a high pinnacle of political power into a cell to which he was sentenced for life for the murder of an Indianapolis girl.

Jackson Appears Nervous.

Governor Jackson appeared nervous as Stephenson was called to the stand. He tilted back his chair, moved his hands restlessly and wet his lips. Stephenson also showed the strain of the occasion. He answered in low but distinct voice the few questions put him before the argument started.

In the brief direct examination, Stephenson testified he had "been mixed up" with Governor Jackson in politics in 1922 and 1924. He said he knew intimately George V. Coffin, Marion county republican chairman, and also was acquainted with Robert I. Marsh, local attorney, both of whom were indicted with Jackson but have been granted separate trials.

"Did you have a conversation with Governor Jackson and Coffin relative to the resignation of William P. Evans?" Prosecutor William H. Remy asked. It was at that point that the defense counsel objected. Evans was Marion county prosecutor in 1923 and resigned when McCray was indicted on embezzlement charges. A jury was obtained this morning after three days of effort to that end.

PRIMARY TO NAME DELEGATES URGED

Nelson M. Shipp, former associate editor of the Mason Telegraph and an one time secretary to Senator William J. Harris, has sent a telegram to The Constitution offering a plan for election of delegates to the Housman convention. The message, which comes from Washington, D. C., is as follows:

"As a resident of the sixth district and one of two thousand candidates for delegates to the national democratic convention from Georgia, I wish to remark on the present situation as to selection of delegates. It is my understanding that the resolutions adopted by the state committee Saturday leave the matter entirely open to Senator George as to how he shall appoint the delegates."

"In view of the fact that the task of selecting such delegates is one weighted with far too harassing a responsibility to be shouldered by one individual, I wish humbly to suggest that Senator George request the people of various congressional districts to lead their assistance in the premises; that there be called in each congressional district a primary for the selection of four delegates from each respective district and eight delegates from the state at large. This would elect or recommend fifty-six delegates with half a vote each and Senator George should then appoint these delegates on the people's recommendation. This would relieve the senator of any and all embarrassment. I hope, therefore, that the press of the state will give its columns to discussion of this idea and its reaction. Senator George's great position in the United States senate is too valuable to the people of Georgia to be disturbed by the necessity of playing politics with the appointment of delegates when such a primary can be held at a small expense."

Grandmother Knew

there was nothing so good for congestion and colds as mustard. But the old-fashioned mustard plaster burned and blistered.

Musterole gives the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Gently rub it in. See how quickly the pain disappears. Try Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

kids knowit checks sore throat

Listerine is so generally used as a remedy for cold weather complaints that even children know about it.

At the first sign of sore throat, gargle with it full strength. It immediately attacks the disease-producing bacteria in the mouth and throat, and usually prevents a threatening condition from becoming serious.

During cold weather months make a habit of using it two or three times a day. It may spare you a long siege of illness. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

The kind of roof you like to live under!

THAT'S the kind of roof that Carey Asphalt Shingles give you! They win on appearance alone. So good looking everybody admires them—and their distinctive color tones never tire. They lend charm to the finest home.

But "The Shingle that Never Curls" is as famous for its remarkable durability as for its handsome appearance. Once on, they're on to stay—snug, trim, weather-tight—year in and year out.

The CAREY BIG SIZE Asphalt Shingle in SILVER GREEN

Most beautiful of all shingle shades is the famous "Silver-Green." Only one quarry in the country—Carey-controlled—yields slate of this matchless hue. Other colors, too, if you prefer—a subdued red, and conservative blue-black. And Carey Asphalt Shingles in the BIG SIZE are much thicker than any ordinary shingle, and half again as large—big enough to afford a three-thickness roof with shingles laid full 5" to the weather. Have us tell you all about them.

THEATER REVIEWS

Rose-Marie Again Thrills Theatergoers of Atlanta

Bringing to Atlantans an entrancing story told in entrancing music, "Rose-Marie" opened its second week's engagement at the Erlanger theater Monday night, and audiences again thrilled to the tuneful score of Erlanger and Stohr.

When the last ticket is checked this Saturday night, it is probable that "Rose-Marie" will take its place as the biggest financial success of the season for the Erlanger, and that one element alone speaks more for the reviewer to admit that mere words are not adequate to describe properly.

Not in two years of regular attendance at Atlanta's shows—legitimate, vaudeville, pictures, musical comedy—has the reviewer witnessed such spontaneous applause as that which acclaimed the startling clever "Totem Tom Tom" number, a dance number which in its sheer rhythm of forty feminine bodies working as one, brings the viewer almost to his feet.

In individual performances, there are no outstanding stars in "Rose-Marie." Beulah Benson and Paul Donah play the leads, and they play them efficiently and well, but it is doubtful whether any star, be he ever so great, could bring himself to such a pinnacle in the show that he could outline the massed excellence of the production as a whole.

"Rose-Marie" is that kind of a show great!

In Peggy Pates, a clever miss, and Houston Richards, "Rose-Marie" has two intelligent comedy artists who are responsible for many laughs. The truth is, some of Mr. Richards' lines are so unutterably clever that they failed to get over as they should, which is due.

Hazel Gaudreau one remembers as the charming danseuse who led the "Totem Tom Tom" number; and the charming half-wild Indian girl, Charles Meakin, and Neil Moore, two splendid performers, are important parts of the cast.

Through the score runs the remarkable virility and vitality that Rudolph Friml put in his "Vagabond King" and his never-to-be-forgotten "Song of the Vagabond," which has achieved fame here principally through the medium of the phonograph.

It is true, and by this time, redundant to say that "Rose-Marie" should not be missed. No true lover of beauty in music and production will let the week pass without having seen "Rose-Marie."

"RADIO MINSTRELS," WESTERN PICTURE SCORE AT GEORGIA

With Danley Paskman and his famous "Radio Minstrels," from station WGBS, New York, as the headline attraction, this week's program at Keith's Georgia theater is unusually interesting and well balanced, and has Miss Edna Kirby, the "Paramount Girl" from Hollywood, as the house guest, as an added attraction. Miss Kirby appears daily at 3 and 9 o'clock.

In addition to the excellent vaudeville program of Zane Grey's great western stories, "Under the Tonto Rim," featuring Richard Arlen and Mary Brian, will be shown all week on the screen. It deals with the boom days of a small settlement in the Tonto basin in Arizona, and has plenty of action.

Paskman presents one of the most complete minstrel shows on the vaudeville stage, consisting of 20 high-powered entertainers. It is the original company of Zane Grey's great western stories, "Under the Tonto Rim," featuring Richard Arlen and Mary Brian, will be shown all week on the screen.

Guilty and Jeanne offered a number of gymnastic stunts difficult to perform, and were given prolonged applause from the audience.

One of the most enjoyable acts on the program was presented by Louise Wilson and "Tut" Duncan, and was entitled "A Melange of Mirth and Melody." A clever tap dance was a feature of the act.

An overture by the Keith-Albee concert orchestra under the direction of J. P. Mathiessen, conductor, and a news reel complete the program.

FILM UNIT, TEAL, PHELPS SISTERS HITS AT HOWARD

With the Public "Making Movies" film unit producing the bulk of the stage entertainment, Ray Teal as a "long-haired" pit conductor, the Phelps Sisters charming audiences with their beauty and Norma Talmadge appearing as a dance hall girl who fights for her virtue against all the bad men, the Howard program this week provides the unusual, to say the least, in motion picture house amusement.

As we said, Mr. Teal appears as pit conductor this week, and he is highly satisfactory. In fact, it brings him a new and more intimate familiarity with the audiences, and consequently, if you are one of the alleged weaker sex, you'll probably be fighting for a front-row seat ere the week has ended.

"Making Movies" while it may not be in the approved Hollywood fashion, due to the lack of the local talent, certainly supplies a whole of a comedy show. Rehearsals of the scenes are being held on the stage. The actual picture will be shot offstage, it is said.

Maybe it's your reviewer's expressed weakness for twins, but the Phelps Sisters, who are identical, certainly supply a whole of a comedy show. Rehearsals of the scenes are being held on the stage. The actual picture will be shot offstage, it is said.

They are by all odds the most beautiful of the lot, and with nice voices and good personalities, they give audience a fresh and youthful treat which is not often obtained from the professional stage. They do a nice song, and then a fetching dance number.

'WHAT PRICE GLORY' SCORES GREAT HIT AT RIALTO THEATER

At the Rialto theater Monday night, where "What Price Glory" magnificent dramatic comedy of the war, opened a week's engagement, the packed theater fairly shouted its approval.

With the limitations of the stage play cast aside, with Raoul Walsh setting his camera to visualize the action, there is a picture that surpasses the original in every way.

The picture conducts itself in the same rapid, taut, tense dramatic fashion which made the stage presentation such a highly successful entertainment.

The film truly adheres to the stage pattern in all its essential details and improves upon it in its scope of the war scenes, its atmosphere, its ever increasing interest, its thrills and its hilarious laughter.

"What Price Glory" is marked by one of the greatest performances ever flashed upon the screen, that of Victor McLaglen, the hard-boiled captain of the marines, who give a portrayal which is astounding. In fact, you cannot imagine anyone else in this marvelous role after seeing McLaglen's performance.

Edmund Lowe, as the shifty Sergeant Quirt, also give a striking portrayal of a most difficult part, and Dolores Del Rio, as the charming, seductive Charmaine, could not have given a stronger impersonation.

FINEST PROGRAM OF ALL SEASON NOW AT CAPITOL

What is by far the finest program on both stage and screen presented theatres at the Capitol theater, if not the finest seen in a local variety house this season, is to be seen currently at the Capitol theater, with five really great Pantheons, acts on the stage and "Sharp Shooters," a stirring romance of a sailor's loves, on the screen.

Headlined by the Jarvis Reue of 1928, which, in addition to being a very good and very complete vaudeville revue, winds up with a big "laughing" in which the performers on the whole combine to set the audience in rollicking laughter.

The unit show idea is taken up and carried further with a bang in the Jarvis Reue, and flash and facility, visit the Universal house this week will find one of the most enjoyable times they ever spent in a theater.

The great sensation of the bill is the act of the Balabanows, accordion artists, who present a treat that is new and unique in variety—that of a piano, which, in addition to being a member of the group, although the very essence of youth, an artistic performer on the instrument.

Three brothers and one sister, the last named being excessively beautiful, compose the Balabanows, and they run through a series of group numbers and solos with speed, flash and facility, leaving the audience clamoring for more. Mary Balabanow is a nice little dancer and she, with her sister, Helen, lends unlimited charm to the act which might otherwise be present were it an all-male organization.

Ben Smith, one of the cleverest comedians a local stage has held, provided one of the biggest hits of the season Monday night, and the Caledonians, three brothers, open the bill nicely.

Whatever you do, for your own sake, see the indescribable impudence of George O'Brien in "Sharp Shooters." The film is excellent from beginning to end. It is very risqué in places, but never approaches the vulgar and is consequently that much more delightful.

TUNNEY-DEMPSEY FIGHT PICTURES SCORE AT TUDOR

Tex Rickard is passing up a couple more millions of cash dollars if he does not manage to get Jack Dempsey to fight Gene Tunney again, it became evident at the Tudor theater Monday night when a new version of the much-touted Dempsey-Tunney fight of last September was shown.

It will be there all week, with about seven performances each day. It will be shown with regular screen program. Times of the showings may be obtained by telephoning Walnut 7687.

The slow motion version of the sensational fight, which has been shown in many places, is in no way connected with the fight shown before, and is not a duplicate of it.

Jack Dempsey was cheered loudly and enthusiastically during the screening of the fight film eliciting the fans would love to draft him, even if he "does not choose to run" and have him try to take his old crown from Tunney.

LABOR IS BEATEN BY BIG MAJORITY IN BRITISH VOTE

London, February 13.—(AP)—A labor motion complaining of the government's failure to deal with the employment situation was defeated tonight in a house of commons by a vote of 293 to 137.

In the course of the debate on the motion Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin defended the government's refusal to ratify the Washington convention fixing the eight-hour day as the standard for labor.

He argued that until absolute clearness on all points in the agreement had been achieved, there was no room for compromise. "To our power to maintain our standard of life if we left ourselves open to competition which in the view of the government might be unfair."

He added that the British government is most eager to obtain a revision of the convention which would remove every doubt from the minds of all participants.

RECEIPT OF HOGS SETS NEW MARK AT CHICAGO PEN

Chicago, February 13.—(AP)—The largest hog receipts on the Chicago market since 1925 were recorded today. One hundred thousand were placed for sale and most of them found willing buyers. Medium and strong weight hogs brought $8.00 to $8.10, while light butchers topped the market at $8.25.

Generally the hog trade was 10 to 20 cents lower.

FRENCH INTEND TO CONTROL OIL BY LEGISLATION

Paris, February 13.—(AP)—Prospects of early action by the chamber of deputies on the government's project to establish a commission of control of the importation of petroleum has caused some anxiety among representatives of the American petroleum interests here.

The avowed object of the plan is to make France as independent as possible of foreign petroleum interests and the deduction drawn is some quarters that this tends toward discrimination is described in official circles as erroneous.

Miss Emily Woodward Defines 'Club and Press Relationship'

"Relationship Between Club and Press" was clearly defined in a brilliant and informative address by Miss Emily Woodward, of Vienna, president of the Georgia Press association, before the membership of the Atlanta Woman's club Monday afternoon. Her message stressed "more consideration toward newspaper women and publishers in presenting club news in concrete and concise statements, arriving at the story being presented in the first paragraph without injecting any fulsome introductory sentences, and preparing copy entirely free from the use of pronouns."

"Clubwomen," said Miss Woodward, "own and edit the Vienna News, should show appreciation to publishers of newspapers in giving away valuable space to clubwomen, all of which is done at a cost mounting upwards towards hundreds of dollars monthly. Moreover, the editing of copy by women trained, fitted through experience to be judges of what to eliminate and what news to bring forward in articles sent to the woman's department for publication, should be met with the right kind of spirit, as these newspaper women are serving in their positions with their ears to the ground, and immediately recognize the worth and character of news, and are capable of deleting in a satisfactory method that which is dress. It is necessary that news meet the requirements laid down by newspapers to fit a certain rule applicable to that publication. An alert, open minded newspaper woman knows organization work and is familiar with its program and the object for which the designated organization is striving, therefore she is not only capable but understands the characteristics of that august body of women."

Mrs. John Owens was elected chairman of the nominating committee, and serving with her are Mesdames Charles Chalmers, Ben H. Hill, John Harper, Charles Goodman and Miss Mary Cayer, the election of new officers taking place in May. Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, president of Atlanta Woman's club, presided at the meeting, and Mrs. John S. Brodgon, treasurer, reported a substantial balance on hand. Mrs. Shepard Bryan, chairman of membership, reported the following new members: Life members, Mesdames Ernest L. Rhodes, Thomas K. Glenn, M. L. Lively, J. M. Hieh, J. R. Hopkins, Frank A. Leatherman, and, as active members, Mesdames W. E. Mitchell, A. O. Mitchell, Bruce Potts, Lee Potts, C. Boltaire Eggleston, Miss Clara Louise Benlow.

Mrs. Tom R. Brooke reported a continued enthusiasm in extension classes, which have proven quite profitable to the club. Mrs. H. M. Nichols, chairman for Tallulah Falls school, reported $1,000 for maintenance from the club, for the support of Tallulah Industrial school. Mrs. Newton Wing, of the American homes department, extended an invitation to attend the Oriental tea to be given at Phillipsian's Wednesday, February 15. Mrs. Walter A. Sims, chairman of the junior department, announced a benefit dance, sponsored by the department Wednesday evening, February 15, in the banquet hall, proceeds to be devoted to educational work. Mrs. Ben H. Hill, chairman of literature, announced a meeting for February 27, at 3 o'clock.

'Individuality' Is Spring Fashion Revue Keynote

"Individuality" is the keynote of the spring fashion revue presented Monday at 12 and 3:30 o'clock on Davidson-Paxon's third floor and which will be repeated Tuesday at the same hour.

Six charming models displayed frocks, hats and accessories, ranging from the severely tailored mode to the exquisitely feminine dance and evening gowns. To the accompaniment of strains from the Baltimore orchestra, gowns of the Rodier inspired silks, adaptations from Lelong, Paton, Lanvin, Jane Regny, Premet and Louise Boulanger were most effective by presented.

The decidedly feminine trend—away from the former uniformity and simplicity of dress—was emphasized, creating a "clothes excitement" in the air. The exhibition was planned to present this new fashion note to Atlanta women and to show them just to what degree this new feeling is being carried by the foremost designers. Tea was served at the afternoon showing.

extension, for Camp Fire girls, plead for aid and support in the campaign being launched to raise funds to secure a camp. Mrs. Potter-Spiker extended invitations to a "Travel-doll Dance League," in the banquet hall of the club Thursday, February 16, at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. Louisa Wicker Allenworth, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Chalmers, rendered a musical program.

Mrs. S. F. Boykin Reelected President of Local Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. S. F. Boykin was unanimously reelected president of the Atlanta branch of the Young Woman's Christian association Monday morning at a meeting of the organization held at local headquarters on Auburn avenue. Other officers of the local branch were also reelected, including Mrs. T. Guy Woolford, first vice president; Mrs. B. L. Bugg, second vice president; Mrs. R. J. Bates, treasurer; Mrs. E. M. Underwood, recording secretary; Mrs. W. A. Smart, corresponding secretary.

For the past year Mrs. Boykin has successfully steered the activities of this splendid organization and during her regime the program sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. has been greatly broadened. The annual report of Miss Julia Ewing White, general executive secretary of the Atlanta Y. W. C. A., was a high light of the Monday meeting, the report revealing that during the past year over 300,000 girls had been benefited or assisted by the local Y. W. C. A. Much credit for the excellent report is due Mrs. Boykin, whose ability and power as an executive has long been recognized by those with whom she has come in contact and the strength of her convictions admirably fits her to serve in this capacity.

Mrs. W. R. Prescott and Mrs. F. M. Robinson were elected honorary life members of the executive board at the meeting Monday. Both Mrs. Prescott and Mrs. Robinson have long been prominently identified with the work of the Atlanta Y. W. C. A. and were outstanding figures in the securing of the new Y. W. C. A. headquarters on Auburn avenue. Mrs. Lee Ashcraft, who is a leading figure in the Y. W. C. A., was elected chairman of the finance committee at Monday's meeting, this position being among the most important included in the organization's activities.

The new directors recently elected include Mrs. Shepard Bryan, Mrs. Albert Walden, Miss Mildred Wells, Mrs. E. T. Booth, Mrs. T. L. Stokes, Mrs. Calvin Prescott and Mrs. Herman Evans. Mrs. B. L. Bugg, Miss Susie Wailes and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft were reelected as directors in the organization. Mrs. R. K. Rambo and Miss Mildred Wells were named as the two directors to act on the executive board, the board including the officers, Miss Sue Hill, chairman of the Phyllis Wheatly branch, and the two directors. Another feature of the meeting was the decision to send a telegram to Senator Harris, Senator George and to the members of the house naval appropriations bill protesting against the bill pending for the increased naval expenditures, the telegram representing 850 members of the Atlanta Y. W. C. A.

Washington Seminary Alumnae Meet Today.

THE PREMIER SHOWING OF

Shagmoor TOP COATS

for the Spring Season

THE Spring Models of the famous Shagmoor Top Coats demonstrate again the incomparable tailoring that makes these coats leaders in the realm of sports coats. The new showing demonstrates also the variety of styles for which Shagmoor coats are famous!

But best of all is the fabric itself—the exclusive Shagmoor! It is made of purest wool that will not wrinkle, does not show dust, is immune to moisture. And it will never go out of style! Shagmoor is an institution!

Mrs. Burton Advises Women on Motherhood and Companionship

"For several years I was denied the blessing of motherhood," writes Mrs. Margaret Burton, of Kansas City. "I was terribly nervous and subject to periods of terrible suffering and melancholia. Now I am the proud mother of a beautiful little daughter and a true companion and inspiration to my husband. I believe hundreds of other women would like to know the secret of my happiness, and I will gladly reveal it to any married woman who will write me."

Mrs. Burton offers her advice entirely without charge. She has nothing to sell. Letters should be addressed to Mrs. Margaret Burton, 1100 Massachusetts, Kansas City, Mo. Correspondence will be strictly confidential.—(adv.)

Old Georgia in a New Setting

The quaintness, the picturesqueness of hardy old Georgia is revived on the Sixth Floor at Rich's. Here a rare exhibit of handicraft, identical in kind and beauty with the work of pioneer women is attracting city-wide attention.

Direction of Clubwomen

The exhibit, which is connected with Rich's departments of rugs, draperies, and interior decorations, is under the direction of Mrs. Ira E. Farmer, chairman of Home Demonstration work for the Georgia Federation of Women's clubs, cooperating with the County Demonstration agents. Mrs. Farmer has arranged a display full of meaning to lovers of the spirit of the antique.

Artistic, Commercial, Philanthropic

The collection, however, is more than a contribution to sound principles of art. It is also a contribution to sound principles of state economic. It represents a persistent desire of Georgia clubwomen to standardize the valuable products of a great body of unorganized workers—the farm women of Georgia who are carrying on housewifely arts in accord with the best and earliest traditions of home beauty.

Spirit of Colonial Georgia

Outstanding illustrations of the skill of these Georgia women are:

"Hit and Miss" carpeting, hand-woven patchwork quilts and woven coverlets. Baskets made of honeysuckle and pine. Tufted bedspreads in Janice Meredith patterns and hooked rugs in Mount Vernon patterns—both spreads and rugs having recently won distinction in national magazines devoted to the promotion of beautiful homes.

A Bit of Prophecy

This exhibit—from Demorest, Dalton, Rydal—all sections of the state—illustrates the present marked appreciation of home-lovers for quaint furnishings of the past. But it is also a bit of prophecy, looking to a time, foreseen by Georgia clubwomen, when our industrial women will come into their own.

Miss Elizabeth McArthur Weds Mr. Hopkins at Quiet Ceremony

Occasioning wide interest in social circles throughout the state is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth McArthur to Norman Thomas Hopkins, formerly of Greensboro, N. C., the ceremony having taken place at noon Saturday at the home of the Rev. Marvin Williams, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Methodist church, on Moreland avenue. The Rev. Williams read the marriage service in the presence of the members of the bride's and groom's families.

The lovely bride, who was unattended, was modestly gowned for the occasion in an ensemble costume of beige crepe, worn with a smart close-fitting hat of beige felt combined with straw. A shoulder spray of orchids and valley lilies completed the bride's costume.

El Circulo Espanol Holds Meeting.

El Circulo Espanol was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Haralson at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Hale, in College Park with Mrs. J. E. Campbell, the president, presiding. Miss Lottie May Hooten sang a Spanish ballad, accompanied by Miss Sallie Siskely at the piano. Miss Hooten also gave several instrumental numbers.

Major H. A. Hutchings gave a talk upon the subject of the Philippines, where for many years he was stationed as an army officer. He spoke enlighteningly of the inhabitants there, of their conduct of affairs political, economic and religious. Special tribute was paid by Major Hutchings to the centralized system of schools which has resulted from American occupancy of the islands. He explained in detail the ideal plan upon which this system operates, a plan identical to both city and village. Following his talk, Major Hutchings volunteered to answer any questions, and an interesting forum resulted.

A vocabulary game, featuring groups of allied words, formed the closing number. In this contest the prize, an attractive picture entitled "La Senorita," was won by Mrs. J.

received her education at Wesleyan college in Macon and since finishing school has been a recognized belle in younger social circles. Her parents made Florida their home upon their departure from Atlanta. Mrs. McArthur going to Lumber City, her former home, to reside following Mr. McArthur's death a short time ago. Of a lovely blonde type, the bride possesses unusual beauty and is very popular with a wide circle of friends here who will be interested to learn of her return to the city for residence. She is the sister of Mrs. Earl Miller of Haines City, Fla., who will be remembered as Miss Margaret McArthur, of the Gossard company, and of Walter and Stewart McArthur.

Mr. Hopkins is a native of Greensboro, N. C., being a member of a prominent and influential family of that state. Immediately following the ceremony he and his bride left for a motor trip to North Carolina, and upon their return will reside in the Seven apartments.

Winthrop Alumnae Hold Meeting.

Mrs. W. Emmett Davis was hostess to the members of the Atlanta chapter of the Winthrop Alumnae association at her home on Clifton road Friday afternoon.

The feature of the afternoon's program was a talk on the city government of Atlanta by James S. Mayson, city attorney. An account of Founder's day at Winthrop from the Charlotte Observer was read by Mrs. Reese.

Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. Jas. Sartor, Mrs. H. H. Hirsch, Mrs. T. Bolling Gay, Mrs. J. P. Whitmore, Miss Alice Rivers, Mrs. H. H. Hendricks, Mrs. E. P. Palmer, Mrs. Harry C. Savage, Mrs. Reese and Mrs. Leake.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry C. Savage at her home on McLenon avenue.

C. Vallebono, a new member, Mrs. R. Chase, formerly a resident of Mexico, was welcomed by El Circulo Espanol. Mrs. Haralson was assisted in the entertainment by her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Hale, and by her granddaughter, Miss Lydia Lovett. The El Circulo Espanol meets with Mrs. J. E. Campbell Friday afternoon, February 24.

Miss Katherine Runge, of the Gossard Company, will be at Rich's all week!

All the way from New York comes this famous figure authority, Miss Katherine Runge. She will be present at the lingerie Fashion Revue on Tuesday and Friday and between times will be in the corset department to give advice on the correct foundation garments for every type. Dan Cupid Delivers Valentines To Lovelorn Atlantans Today

By Bessie S. Stafford.

Another romantic St. Valentine day is at hand with its sentimental meaning that love makes the world go round. Dan Cupid was up bright and early Tuesday morning and tied his red sash around his waist, around himself with his trusty bow, and swung a quiver filled with love-tipped arrows across his chubby shoulders. The little love god clicked his heels together, snapped his hand to his forehead as a salute to St. Valentine, and the busy little cherub began running here, there and yonder as fast as his fat little legs could carry him, delivering all kinds of friendly dignified, jolly, ridiculous and sentimental tokens to Atlantans with quick dispatch. Somebody caught a glimpse of him scampering out of a florist shop with a box of choicest red roses tucked under his arm. It was decorated with festive ribbon bows; and addressed to Mrs. B—, ordered by a devoted son, while a card accompanying the flowers have the message:

"I'm not very good at this poetry stuff,
As a juggler of words I don't shine.
But of 'Wonderful Mothers' I must be some judge
For I've done a good job picking mine."

Cupid was again encountered darting breathlessly out Peachtree road until he came to a fashionable north side drive, his little form almost bent double under the weight of a huge red satin heart filled with luscious candies, favorite assortments of a certain debutante selected by her most ardent admirer. Up the walk he pranced ringing the door bell to deliver sweets to the sweetest, and left a card on which was inscribed:

"This red satin heart looks very fine
So I'm sending it to my Valentine."

On his way back to town golden hearted Cupid searched through his tokens until he found a slender box covered in heavily blue plush, and lined with white satin, in which nestled a platinum bar pin, sparkling with diamonds of the first water. Some days ago it had disappeared from view in a jeweler's window, purchased by a well-known Atlantian for his recent bride whom he knew covered the ornament. With a shy little movement, Cupid doubted the best right into her hands with a card from the sender reading:

"When Cupid's dart
Reached both our hearts
You exchanged your heart for mine.
So now, dear wife, Love of my Life,
To you I send this Valentine."

As the hour grew late and people began to stir about, Cupid flattered towards Ansley park, drawing up before a house wherein dwells a debutant of a year ago. He pit-a-pattered up the walk holding a lovely bouquet of orchids, a standing order filled every year, because really and truly the birthday of Miss G— falls upon this red letter day. As the saying goes three lucky is the person whose birthday is in February, for it's the birthmonth of such notable as George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Alexander Stephens, Longfellow, and that greatly beloved poet, the late Frank L. Stanton. And Cupid, musing with dozens of little red hearts, humming birds sipping nectar from red roses, went with the bouquet its verse begging reciprocity in the following measure:

"I've gotten the habit of caring for you
Please get the habit and cure for me, too."

Returning to the downtown district of Atlanta, big, tall buildings glared at the little fellow but failed to dampen his ardor, because he ran up the stairs rather than wait for the crowded elevator to leave a telegram to a well-known financier couched thusly:

"This little Valentine greeting
Takes my love to the dearest dad,
That anyone in this old world
Has ever known or had."

Then he taxied around the corner to deliver another wisp to a very prominent gentleman which said:

"I cannot send this heart of mine,
To you, my husband, and Valentine,
You've had it and held it for ever
So long
And shall ever have it, as life is long."

Miss Lucy Zachry To Honor Board.

Miss Lucy Zachry will be hostess to the board of the Woman's Missionary and Benevolent society of the Second Baptist church on Wednesday, February 22, at the regular weekly dinner at the church at 6:15 o'clock in the evening. It will be a George Washington affair, a table being reserved for the board members.

Fifth District Club Institute Launched At Woman's Club Today

The club institute, fifth district, of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, of which Mrs. Kate Green Hess is president, opens at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Atlanta Woman's club, under the direction of Mrs. John F. MacDougal, club institute chairman for the district, who will be assisted in launching the second club institute sponsored by this district by Mrs. J. E. Springer, chairman of education, and Mrs. Kate Green Hess, district president. Miss Ruth Hinman, chairman of music, fifth district, will lead in the singing of "My Georgia Land," the federation song.

The program is as follows: "A Drill in Parliamentary Law," Miss Rosa Woodberry; "Know Your Federation," Mrs. A. H. Brenner; "Club Extension," Mrs. A. H. Brenner; "Club Program," Mrs. S. V. Sanford; "Publicity," Mrs. Lamar Rucker; "Club Finance," Mrs. W. W. Stark; "Credentials and Registration," Mrs. H. C. McCall. Visitors are requested to bring note books and pencils and be prepared to take part in the discussions of the various topics.

Miss Alice Baxter Gives Poetry Rules.

Repeated inquiries regarding the scenic prize poem contest, offered by the National Life Conservation society through its president, Mrs. Charles Cyrus Marshall, of New York, and conducted in Georgia by the Georgia Federation of Women's clubs through Mrs. Alice Baxter, chairman of conservation and forestry, leads to the publication once more of rules governing the contest. Georgia's press publicity regarding this prize poem contest has not only caught the attention of Georgia poets, but has extended interest in the contest beyond the state. One poem has come in from Florida, another from St. Louis, Mo. Whether or not Georgia wins the prize her poets are helping Georgia and the south in calling the attention of the National Life Conservation society to the natural beauty and grandeur of scenic spots in Georgia and the south.

Rules governing the "America Beautiful" poetry contest include: Poems will be judged in each state; the best to be submitted in the national contest. First prize, $100; second, $50; five prizes of $10 each. No restriction as to length of poems.

All operators in hair dressing parlors and proprietors of the shops are invited to attend the dance by the association.

Miss Jimmie Pattillo Is Honored at Luncheon.

Mrs. John Conyers and Miss Inez Eubank were hostesses at a luncheon Monday at the Atlanta Biltmore in compliment to Miss Mary Jimmie Pattillo.

Covers were placed for the members of the bridal party and a few close friends of the honor guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts Honor Daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Roberts entertained Friday evening at their home on Cumberland road at a beautiful valentine party honoring their young daughter, Miss Dorothy Roberts.

No more than two poems by the same author may be submitted. Send no stamps. No poems will be returned. Sign poem with a pen name, and enclose with each poem a sealed envelope containing the real name and address of the author. Send all poems by Georgia Monday at Miss Alice Baxter, 826 Peachtree street, Atlanta, Ga., not later than February 26, 1928.

West End Club Holds Literary Meet Wednesday

The literature program at the West End Woman's club Wednesday afternoon will be given by Mrs. Alice E. Means, chairman, and Mrs. A. B. Burt, music chairman. Club members from other states will read papers on little-known features of their home states. Mrs. George Grant, president, will tell of New Hampshire; Mrs. H. W. Wilder, Massachusetts; Dupont Murphy, South Carolina; Mrs. O. A. Harbin, Louisiana; Mrs. Elizabeth Young and Mrs. Means, Kentucky.

Miss Marie Ashler, who is winning fame as an archaeologist, speaks on "Georgia." Mrs. A. B. Burt, chairman of music, has charge of the program on the third Wednesday of each month, and refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

Mrs. L. M. Ahern, chairman of garden committee, will sponsor the first of a series of evening bridge-dinners February 17. Turkey dinner will be served for 50 cents a plate. Guests may bring cards and play in the lounge.

Mrs. E. L. Hutchins, forestry chairman, will sponsor tree planting exercises on the club grounds Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mayor and Mrs. Ragdale, who gave the building site for the club house, will be in charge of the exercises. The committee will plant a maple tree in honor of Mrs. Chester W. Johnson, who was president during the construction of the club house, and it will be the first tree planted on presidents row and Mrs. Hutchins plans to honor the other presidents in the same manner. Crepe myrtle trees will be planted on the Cascade frontage by members of the club for their children, some of those planting trees are Mesdames Mark Langford, W. L. Crawford, J. R. Wakefield, Z. T. Layfield, A. B. Thompson. Club members and their friends are invited.

Worthy Patrons O. E. S. will entertain at the club house Wednesday evening, and the club house is available for entertainments and parties and may be obtained by calling Mrs. George Grant, the president.

Best Way to Loosen Stubborn Cough

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, throat tickle, bronchial asthma, or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and add the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a fine, pleasant-tasting supply of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable material, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

End Fat

The way is now easy and pleasant

Anybody who suffers from excess fat should learn what modern science offers. Don't starve, don't over-exercise. Combat the real cause. Supply your system with that which turns food into fuel and energy rather than into fat.

Modern research discovered that way some two decades ago. It was then embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. Today the results are seen and told everywhere. Most people are slender. All modern styles are adapted to them. They have supplied their systems with the natural factors which prevent the formation of fat.

Users of Marmola do not attempt abnormal exercise or diet, though moderation helps. They simply take four tablets daily until weight comes down to normal. New vivacity, new health comes at the same time.

The methods are not secret. Each box of Marmola contains the formula and the reasons for results. You know what you are taking, and the scientific reasons for the benefits which come.

Start Marmola now. You cannot afford to stay fat. Beauty, health and fitness require normal weight. Watch the results for a month, and they will delight you. Then tell the facts to others. Why wait another day?

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. If your druggist is out, he will get them at once from his wholesaler.

Cotton States Tournament Begins Thursday at Auburn

Smithy Five Among State Teams Invited

Three Other State Quintets, Athens High, Vienna and Darlington, Play.

BY SAMMY ADAMS.
Auburn, Ala., February 13.—The seventh annual interscholastic Cotton States basketball tournament will be held here beginning Thursday at noon, February 16, with 16 teams, the pick of high schools in Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee competing for honors. The tournament this year will assemble the cream of high-school basketball teams in the southeastern states and competition is expected to be keener than in previous years.

Coch Wilbur Hutsell, who has charge of tournament arrangements, received records of various teams, many of which are undefeated, and these records were carefully considered before extending invitations to 16 teams.

Judging from the impressive records that Tech High, Athens High, Vienna High, Georgia Military Academy and Darlington school at Rome, have furnished tournament officials, Georgia will be well represented. The "Wonder Five" of Vienna High, winners of the Cotton States in 1927, has received but one defeat this year and that at the hands of Tech High by a score of 17 to 15. Tech High in addition to handling Vienna a crushing 40 to 13 straight victory, while Malone has won 90 per cent of its games this year.

Lloyd Hahn Fails In Try for Record

New York, February 13.—(AP)—Lloyd Hahn, American middle-distance ace, failed here tonight in an attempt to beat the world's record for the two-thirds of a mile run.

Finishing the last four laps of the race alone, Hahn covered the distance in 2 minutes, 44.2 seconds, compared with the world's record of 2:43.3, set by Jimmy Connolly, of the New York Athletic club. Connolly's mark was set five years ago.

Although he failed to beat Connolly's record, Hahn, running on a smooth board floor with unbanked turns, tied the world's best outdoor time for the distance, set in 1910 at Newark, N. J., by Melvin W. Sheppard, old Olympic hero.

Having scored 595 points and with only one defeat by a high school this year, has the most impressive record received by Auburn officials. Darlington School for Boys at Rome, with nine straight victories, also appears to have a strong five. The Rome lads are coached by Charles Scott, a former Auburn star. Alabama's best teams appear to be Tallapoosa County High, Millport High, Opelika High and Anniston High. Montgomery Bell, at Nashville, and James School at Ends, appear to be Tennessee's representatives. Both teams have impressive records for the season. Malone High and Marianna High will in all probability represent Florida. Marianna High has a record of 13 straight victories, while Malone has won 90 per cent of its games this year.

Fights Tonight

Georgia Boy To Grapple On Next Card

Contos Signs Evans To Meet Mickailoff in Thursday Night Prelim.

Evans weighs 210 pounds and is considered an exceptionally good wrestling prospect. He has had one match in Atlanta and that was on such short notice that he had to go into the ring without sufficient preliminary training.

That came about several months ago when Jack Washburn's opponent failed to show up. When Evans, a round chap, came into the ring to fight, he was in a very good mood, and he was very friendly to the crowd, who were very much interested in the "funny looking chap."

Evans pulls surprise. Both the cash customers and Washburn got the surprise of their lives for Evans very quickly demonstrated that he knew what it was all about and for the better part of half an hour gave the giant Oklahoma grappler a terrific battle. His defeat resulted from an accidental fall that knocked the breath out of him and Washburn quick to take advantage of every opportunity, had him pinned before he could recover.

While he is the more clever of the two, Mickailoff will have no advantage in strength over Evans and it is entirely probable that the Georgia lad will treat the fans to the sight of a home state boy triumphing over one of the best known professionals in the wrestling game.

Although the Thursday night program calls for only two matches, it is one of the most attractive cards that Contos has offered here and in addition it is being staged at popular prices. The admission is much less than has been demanded for the wrestling show, Contos being anxious to see if the local fans care to take advantage of bargain prices.

ALONSO WINS TENNIS TITLE IN NEW YORK
New York, February 13.—(AP)—Mamie Alonso, former Spanish Davis cup star, won the Heights Casino invitation tennis tournament today, defeating Francis T. Hunter, ranking No. 2 player, in the finals, 6-1, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4. Hunter was badly off his game at the start of the match, while Alonso played almost perfect tennis.

In the first set Hunter could not control the ball, but steadied somewhat in the second. Hunter played awfully and broke through Alonso's service three times to win the third set. In the fourth Hunter weakened again and the Spaniard took advantage of his errors to take the set and match.

Hunter and William T. Tilden, II, national doubles champions, won the final of the doubles event, defeating Harold and Harry C. Bennis in three hard-fought sets, 6-4, 8-6, 9-7. Hunter's game was not improved by the hard match with Alonso, and Tilden was not played at his top form. Tilden and Hunter reached the final without having played a match, winning by default from Edward T. Henderson and Watson Washburn, in the second round and from Frank Shields and Elmer Griffin in the semi-final by the same method. Bennis and Garland won their way to the final round by a victory over Alonso and William Aydelotte, 6-4, 8-6.

RADIO-ING The Air Waves.

BY WILL SMITH.
Regardless of statements from various sources that simultaneous broadcasting by stations on the same frequency or wave length is impractical from a radio engineering standpoint, it is being done with good degrees of success.

Associated Press reports state that, while was incident for the first part of the first program this broadcast, but that it was then eliminated and for 20 minutes was absent. Also, you know that WJZ, Springfield, Mass., and WBZA, Boston, both Westinghouse stations, are broadcasting simultaneously every night on the same frequency.

We are convinced that it CAN BE DONE. Then why not?

The Dial Twister is wandering around tonight in the wilderness, being written at about 8:10 Monday night. Have been trying to find something, anything, that listened good. Have now, after turning away from WSAI where the Gypsies were doing about everything possible with musical instruments but play upon them.

Enough of jazz—here's WJZ and the Riverside Trail Blazers are saying "Good night." And now comes a learned discourse on buying tested seeds, excellent being in the truck garden business and having no need for clover seed, we go—WJZ. (Have) looked at a program tonight, which is very long, so do not know what WGN or any of the others are up to.) It's a very good orchestra, some chain feature. Oh, it's the General Motors New course Rosa Raisa, An aria from "Aida." We go on.

We get our correct time at 8:30 p. m. from WJZ's air heater. KDKA, a speaker, before some National Republican club. Can't get the hang of it. Interference. Station Fading. So we go to KMOX and get some excellent symphony. Guess it is the Album Symphony on the Columbia system. As we are exploring, we go on. But as we drop down, we run into the same old ban of dozens and hundreds of stations where but a very few should be. However, DOWN we go. Through the bedlam comes a good male voice, KTNX. Now it's "My Blue Heaven," by a guest who dropped in with the rhapsods. Must be a wet night in Muscatine, as well as in Atlanta.

Here we are! "Stars and Stripes Forever" followed by "America." The 12th coast artillery band at Fort Barrancas over WCYA, Pensacola. We move a fraction of the dial and get "My Blue Heaven," with plenty interference, distortion, etc. Probably KFKB. We can only urge you to march. To WLAC, and if some station is celebrating its fourth anniversary, we are told, then we heard a station still further down sign off at "approximately 9:10 p. m. C. S. T." Having dropped below 215 meters, we go up. And get WHO at 535 meters, one channel below the top. General Motors program, KYW is next down, with a speech. WLW also a speech. On Lincoln. And so we stop.

Feature programs on the air tonight include some excellent arrangements. The Stromberg-Carlson hour, KDKA, at 7 o'clock, is a prediction of an hour's real radio entertainment. The program offers Rosenberg's "Auf Wiedersehen," by the quintet of male voices, "Who Can Tell," from Kreisler's light opera, "Apple Blossoms," "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses," and a number of other good selections, solo, quartet and orchestra numbers.

The Eveready hour tonight, over WSB and the network at 8 o'clock, will bring Vernon Dalhart and Carson Robinson. And we say more! They are singers, composers and performers on guitar, harmonica and jews' harp. Both already famous, they joined forces and have become even more noted. We can only urge you to be "on the air" at 8 o'clock tonight.

And should you like the airs of old Quebec, the melodious strains of South American countries, the Norse and the American Indian legends, try the Scherling Singers at 7 o'clock over WSB and the network. "Rolling Deep" to Rio, "The Land of the Sky-Blue Waters," "The Norseman" and others will be given.

An electrical storm will open the Storm King program over WSB at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Jack Cota, Atlanta violinist, will be featured on this L. S. Brach Manufacturing Corporation hour.

From 6:30 to 6:45 o'clock tonight Captain Herbert Hartley, former Lehigh commander, who almost entered business in Atlanta a few weeks ago, will be heard, WSB and network. Auction bridge at 9 o'clock (all over the dial).

Charlotte and Mary at WLW will appear for your entertainment at 8 o'clock. KMOX will broadcast the Listerine hour at 9 o'clock.

The Voters Service will be heard at WSAI and other chain stations at 9 o'clock. The floodlights will appear at WGN at 11 o'clock.

At 8:30 the Torrid Tots will be on at KDKA.

Watch me roll a great cigarette

HERE'S the little finger-exercise that I start my morning with. Some Prince Albert and the makin's papers—that's all you need. P.A. is crimp-cut and stays put. Just the right combination for smooth rolling and smooth smoking! P.A. burns even and cool. It is fragrant in the package and fragrant as you smoke it. And then that taste! Mild and mellow, yet with plenty of rich, satisfying body. I'll say P.A. makes a cigarette! So will you. Get some Prince Albert now and the makin's papers. If you like a pipe, try P.A. this way, too. It's great tobacco, Men.

These are but a few of the distinct advantages of Alertox, which flushes the alimentary tract, re-establishes a natural, healthy liver and bowel action, and is much quicker and more effective than calomel, oils and nauseating cathartics that merely good the liver and work you to death. Alertox also alkalizes the system and thoroughly cleanses it of the poisons that cause auto-intoxication. Ask any one who has tried it. Your druggist has Alertox; if not, send direct upon receipt of price, 60c and $1.00. Crystal Carbonic Laboratory, Dept. 30, Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)
